[ENTERED AT THE PHILADELPHIA POST-OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.]

VOL. XX.—No. 1.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1905.

$5.00 PER YEAR.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Otto C. Wolf, architect, 1025 Arch st., has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owners, the Seitz Brewing Company, at Easton, Pa., who will take bids for a new office building. It will be two stories high, of brick.

Ralph White Co., architects and engineers Pennsylvania Building, is working on plans and specifications for alterations and additions to the car shops of the Public Service Corporation, at Camden, N. J. Bids will be invited after the first of the new year.

W. W. Bretherick, architect, 905 Walnut street, is working on plans and specifications for a new residence at Mt. Airy, Germantown, for E. H. Hulst. It will be three stories high, of stone and pebble dash and will be finished in the interior with hardwood finish and will have every convenience and appointment. Will be ready for bids in about one week.

Furness, Evans & Company, architects, 401 Provident Building, are working on plans and specifications for a new passenger station to be built at French street, Wilmington, Del., for the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railway. It will be two stories high, of brick, stone and steel and will have the usual appointments, such as ticket office on the first floor and waiting quarters above.

Newman & Harris, architects, Land Title Building, have had their plans accepted in competition for the Down Town Club, to be erected on one of the upper floors of the Bullitt Building, South Fourth street. Plans call for a cafe, lounging room, public and private dining rooms and all the club appointments and conveniences. The rooms will be finished in Flemish oak, tinted walls, hardwood floors, etc.

George T. Pearson, architect, 427 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for Whitehall Cresheim Arms, on Allen Lane, Mt. Airy. It will be three stories and basement high, 41x81 feet and will be built of brick and stone and will contain all modern and up-to-date appointments. Bids due, January 5th. The following are bidding: Cluck & Walters, Fred Eldridge, A. S. Tourison and Lewis Havens & Sons.

Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited bids upon a four-story manufacturing building, 38x34 feet, for Theodore Altender & Sons, to be built at the southwest corner of Eighteenth and Cortland streets. It will be built of brick and slow-burning construction, have brick enclosed stairways, tower fire escape and fire-proof vaults and will be equipped with power, heat and light. Bids due, January 5th. The following are bidding: F. L. Hoover & Son, George Kessler, John Detlifs, Wm. R. Dougherty, Burd Evans, Lewis Haven's Sons, A. Raymond Raff, Edw. Gilbert & Co. and Appleton & Burrell.

After endeavoring for years to secure possession of land upon which stands historic St. Patrick's Catholic Church, at Lafayette and Cherry streets, Norristown, Pa., the Pennsylvania Railroad has just purchased the ground from Archbishop Ryan. It is understood that the purchase money amounts to $25,000. This money will form a nucleus for a fund for the establishment of a new church, rectory, school house and convent, to be located at De Kalb and Chestnut streets, that town. The new church is to cost between $75,000 and $100,000 and will be designed upon the most modern plans. Ground for the new church will be broken on March 17th, St. Patrick's Day. Attorneys Michael Francis Doyle and J. Ashton Devereux, as counsel for the Philadelphia Catholic diocese, conducted the transfer of the property on behalf of the Archbishop.

C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street, has completed drawings and specifications for four stone and frame houses, all of different design, to be erected on a plot of ground on the east side of Conshohocken State road, near Bala avenue, Cynwyd, Pa. Bids are to be sent to the architect not later than January 10, 1905. The houses are 24x37 feet with shingle sides and roofs. First floor contains reception and stair halls, parlor, dining room, pantry and kitchen; second floor has three bed rooms and bath; third floor has two large chambers and store room. Front and side porches are included. Laundry is placed in basement with direct connection with rear yard. They will be heated with steam, lighted with gas and electricity, will have modern plumbing fixtures, bath room floor to be tiled. Cement cellar floors and walks are included. The first floor will be finished in chestnut, second floor in basswood with white enamel finish and mahogany finished doors. Third floor and rear portion will be finished in cypress. Floors will be of hard wood and finished. The following builders are estimating: Metzger & Wells, Burd P. Evans, D. W. Sperry and D. A. Fretz, Cynwyd, Pa. William Copeland Furber, architect and engineer, has moved from the Philadelphia Bank Building, 421 Chestnut street, to the Commercial Building, 418 Walnut street. This move was necessary owing to him being cramped for room and to accommodate his increasing business.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES BUILDING NOTES.

Archbishop Ryan is considering the advisability of buying the Wharton street Presbyterian Church property, at Sixth and Wharton streets, with a view to establishing an Italian mission.

1904

Our Regular Annual Report of Construction Work for 1904, Complete, Including all Records of Transfers of Real Estate for the Year.

7298 New Buildings of all Kinds, Costing $23,785,768, Exclusive of the Cost of the Land, Being a Gain of 1638 in the Number of New Buildings over 1903, but a Decrease of $4,126,857 in the Amount Invested.

2244 Alterations and Additions (Costing Three Hundred Dollars Each and Over) at an Estimated Cost of $3,366,000, Against 2097 in 1903, Which Cost $3,145,500, a Gain for This Year of 147 in Number and an Increase of $220,500 in the Amount Expended.

Total Expenditure for Building Improvements during 1904, $27,151,768, Against $31,058,125 in 1903.

19480 Transfers of Real Estate During 1904, Representing a Value of $97,046,364.50. In 1903 There Were 18,156 Transfers, and the Consideration Amounted to $96,372,879.84.

An examination of our report for 1904 will demonstrate quite clearly that the average Philadelphian still clings with praiseworthy tenacity to the idea of a home of his own. More new buildings were erected during 1904 than in any year since 1897, and it may safely be stated that this increase was wholly attributable to the erection of two-, three- and four-story dwellings. It will be seen by our tables that 1,571 more two-story dwellings were erected in 1904 than in 1903; 15 more three-story, and 34 more four-story, showing a total gain of 1,620 in number, and an increase of $3,413,700 in this class of construction work. And had not the unprecedented severity of the weather in December put somewhat of an stop on building of all kinds, there is no doubt that this class of work would have reached even greater proportions.

The following is a table of yearly dwelling construction in Philadelphia from 1887 to 1904 inclusive, embracing two-, three- and four-story dwellings:

	Two-story Dwellings	Three-story Dwellings	Four-story Dwellings	Total
1887.....	4569	1628	3	6201
1888.....	5987	1436	14	7437
1889.....	7450	1902	34	9476
1890.....	7301	1958	22	9281
1891.....	4632	1343	12	5987
1892.....	5110	1744	12	6866
1893.....	3881	1737	14	5632
1894.....	3905	2001	16	5922
1895.....	4491	2612	31	7134
1896.....	5040	1760	33	6833
1897.....	5490	1501	23	7074
1898.....	3685	1373	16	5074
1899.....	2772	728	19	3519
1900.....	2302	775	18	3095
1901.....	3625	939	26	4590
1902.....	3437	773	10	4220
1903.....	4395	704	30	5129
1904.....	5966	719	64	6749
Total	84,038	25,853	397	110,288

The industrials show a slight decrease, the figures being 244 against 246 in 1903, but there is a considerable falling off in the amount expended. This is easily explained by noting that one operation—that of John Wanamaker's store—is responsible for $5,000,000 of the amount credited to 1903.

The following table, showing the erection of industrial buildings since 1889 inclusive, will prove interesting reading to those who think, with good reason, that a wholesome activity on the part of industrials voices the well-being and prosperity of the nation:

The sales of real estate at auction amounted to $4,952,184.97, on which there was a mortgage encumbrance of $7,884.78, while the ground rents amounted to $2,407.64.

The ninety-one miscellaneous buildings include a maternity house, $87,000; nurses' home, $143,000; banks, $183,000; theatres, $255,000; apartment houses, $280,000; orphanage, $209,000; bakeries, $28,500; gymnasium, $47,000; hotel, $600,000; hospitals, $1,127,221; $131,200; chapels, $56,625; truck-houses, $40,000; bowling alley, $11,000; clubhouses, $111,350; laboratory, $8,500; mission-house, $28,000; storage shed, $24,000, and a few other buildings of minor importance.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

Lynch Bros., builders, Lippincott Building, have plans posted for a dormitory and dining room building for Tombs Institute at Port Deposit, Md., to be erected at that place according to plans and specifications of Wyatt & Nolting, architects, Baltimore Md.

Jos. Ashley, builder, Fox Chase, has been awarded the contract to build four residences at B. street and the Second street pike, Fox Chase, for Dr. Sibbald. They will be three stories high, of brick and have all modern improvements. Work will begin at once.

R. A. Patton, builder and owner, Pacific street and Frankford avenue, will erect an operation of twenty-four houses at 56th and Spruce streets. They will be two-stories high, of brick, and contain all modern improvements and will have porches on the front.

William Steele & Son, builders, 1600 Arch street, will start work soon on the erection of a large addition to the plant of Orinoko Mills, Ruth st. below Somerset st., this city. There will be a main structure four stories high and will be fire-proof. The improvements will cost about $100,000.

The Master Builders' Exchange, 18 to 24 South Seventh street, closed the old year with a musical vaudeville and smoker, on Saturday last, December 31st. All the talent was professional. Prior to the entertainment a luncheon was served. There was a large number of the members and their friends present who voted it one of the best ever given in the exchange. The committee deserves great praise for the able manner in which it was conducted.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20TH CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20TH CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

WOODS' STEEL CORNER

It is a patented steel strip that is fastened to lath, or other construction, on projecting corners, is embedded in the plaster and prevents it chipping. It does a great deal more, but our book, "Just Around the Corner," tells the rest. Send for it. A sample, too, for the asking. It costs less to put Woods' Steel Corner in a building than to keep the corners repaired.

Agents with stock in most of the large cities.

DYCKERHOFF PORTLAND CEMENT

E. THIELE, Sole Agent, 99 John Street, New York.

Made in Germany and used in the United States for more than twenty-five years. The high esteem in which it is held is due to its correct chemical composition, great strength and constant uniformity—perfections which have not been approached by any other cement.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Walter F. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, is working on plans and specifications and will invite estimates soon, for five new buildings to be erected at Chester, Pa., for the Philadelphia Quartz Company. They will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements.

Herman Miller, architect, Crozer Building, announces that the contract for the new six-story and basement factory to be erected for L. Harrison, at 1217 Race street, will be awarded on Friday of this week. It is to measure 42x70 feet, and is to be built of brick and slow-burning construction, with tower fire-escape and every modern convenience and appointment.

George H. Watson & Son, builders, 907 Marshall street, have been awarded the contract to build the new residence at 4104-06 Locust street, for Wilmer Atkinson. It will be three stories high, of brick. It will have hardwood on the interior, heated by hot air, tile work and every modern convenience and appointment. The plans and specifications by Geo. Pearson, architect, 427 Walnut street.

It is the intention of the owners of the Hamilton Apartment House at 1334 Walnut street, to make extensive alterations and improvements to this property. It is to be no longer an apartment house. The entire house will be remodeled into an office building, with elevators and all modern office appointments. Mr. Thomas E. Hanly or Mr. M. Gooly have this work in charge with offices at the above place.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth street, has sent plans and specifications to John W. Emery, builder, 1524 Sansom street, for a bid on the proposed new edifice for the College Avenue Baptist congregation, to be built at Annapolis, Md. It will be one story, gallery and basement high, and it is to measure 60x95 feet and will be built of stone with slate roof and will have the usual ecclesiastical furnishings.

It is reported that the highest office building in the city will be built on the old Bellevue Hotel site, at Broad and Walnut streets. It is to be twenty-three stories high. Jos. Huston, Witherspoon Building, is the architect. The capitalists who will own the building will be known as the Bellevue Realty Company. The first three floors will be arranged as banking quarters. The company has applied for a charter.

George E. Savage, architect, Provident Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, has been commissioned to prepare plans and specifications for a new Reformed Church, at Monroe, Clarion county, Pa. It will be one story high, with a finished basement and will measure 60x85 feet, and will be built of brick and stone and will have the usual church furnishings and is estimated to cost $12,000. Bids will be invited from the local contractors in about ten days' time.

At a recent meeting of the T-Square Club, held in their rooms at 1210 Chancellor street, Andrew J. Sauer was awarded the first prize, and Henry F. McGoodwin second prize, in competition for the Walter Cope Memorial prize, his plan being accepted as the best by the judges, for a recreation park and pier on the Delaware River front, forming a terminus for the Southern Boulevard. Warren P. Laird and C. C. Zantinger were the judges.

McLain & Roberts, architects, Land Title Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited sub-bids for four houses for Mellvaine & Co., to be built at Ardmore, Pa. They will measure from 25x50 feet to 33x50 feet, and will be two and a half stories high with porch fronts. One will be built of brick, Southern Colonial in design, two of stone, Dutch Colonial, and one stone and shingle. They will have hardwood on the interior with two and three baths to a house and have every convenience.

The properties, Nos. 417 and 419 Arch street, recently purchased by C. J. Matthews and C. F. C. Stout, respectively, will be altered, for the use of the new owners, as leather warehouses. The alterations consist in the installation of two new freight elevators, new stairways, closing up of present light wells and providing a fireproof light well between the two properties; the installation of heating system, alteration of the store fronts, and general repairs. Plans and specifications by Ballinger & Perrot, 1200 Chestnut street. Estimates have been invited from contractors.

Philip H. Johnson, architect and engineer, Land Title Building, has completed plans and invited estimates for a House of Detention for the Juvenile Court, to be erected at the northeast corner of Twenty-second and Arch streets, for the city. It will be four stories high and will be fireproof. It will measure 30x99 feet and will be built of brick with terra-cotta trimmings and have a granite base. Details previously noted. Bids due, January 16th. Doyle & Doak, David Peoples, John R. Wiggins & Co., Lynch Bros., Henderson Co., Limited, John H. Jordan and Smith & Hardican are bidding.

E. P. Bissell, architect, ninth floor of Bailey Building, has completed plans and invited estimates for the Dulles Memorial Building for the Children's Seashore Home, Chelsea, N. J. It will be a frame structure, 38x54 feet, and will be three stories high. It will have porches in the rear opening out on each floor with a piazza in front. It will have all the up-to-date appointments of a building of its kind. Bids due January 16th. The following are bidding: William R. Dougherty, Stacy Reeves & Son and Appleton & Burrell, Jacob Myers & Son, J. P. Thompson and A. Whitehead.

Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions to the stables of Mr. Henry Justice, at Deyon, Pa. Bids due January 16th. The following builders have been invited to bid: William Russell, Paoli, Pa.; W. H. Burns, Berwyn, Pa.; L. Warren, Devon, Pa.; J. Morris Rositer, Radnor, Pa., Smith & Hardican Co., this city. Same firm is working on revised plans for the new house for Henry K. Gas-kill, to be built at Oak Lane, Pa. As soon as they are completed bids will be invited.

Frank Miles Day & Bros., architects, 925 Chestnut street, have completed plans and invited estimates for a six-story building to be built at 1220 Race street, for Mr. M. Rice. It will measure 20x98 feet and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction. The first floor will be a store. It will be heated by steam, wired for electricity and have every convenience and appointment. Bids due January 16th. The following are bidding: Stacy Reeves & Sons, Wm. R. Dougherty, John R. Wiggins & Co., M. P. Boyd, Appleton & Burrell, Thos. Seeds, Roydhouse, Arey & Co., Thos. Little & Sons, Jas. Johnson, William Steele & Sons and John Duncan.

R. E. White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building, have plans and specifications ready and will invite estimates the latter part of this week for the alteration of the property at 1412-14 Chestnut street, for C. B. Kugler, into a restaurant and cafe, details previously noted. The work will embrace leaded glass, steam heating, ventilation, ornamental iron work, marble, tile, plumbing, electric wiring, elevators, refrigerating plant, mosaic floors, interior decoration and all the necessary equipment for a cafe and modern restaurant. Bids due in about two weeks' time. They also are working on plans and specifications and will invite estimates in about one week for alterations and additions to a furniture store, on Broadway, Camden N. J. The exact location withheld. The addition is to be two stories high, of brick and will measure 20 x 120 feet. They also announce that they will invite estimates the latter part of this week for the new work for the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, details previously noted.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 11, 1905

Samuel H. French & Co., following their well established custom, have issued their sixty-first annual greeting in the shape of a well arranged and convenient calendar and desk pad. Besides wishing their friends to "turn over a new leaf," much valuable information is given concerning cement, enamels, mantels, paints, tiles and every other material of which the company makes a specialty. As this firm was established in 1844, experience added to thoroughly upright business methods have made it worth while to keep it in mind.

STATEMENT OF THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY.

With this issue is published the thirty-third annual statement of the Northern Trust Company, of which Mr. W. Frederick Snyder is the president and Mr. William H. Curtis, Jr., treasurer. With a capital stock of $500,000 full paid, the surplus is now $750,000; the undivided profits, $18,607.42; the dividends, $20,000, and the deposits, $6,118,408.45; in each instance the figures showing a gratifying increase over the statement of last year. The assets, which are given in detail, amount to $7,407,015.87, and a careful perusal of the list will furnish indubitable evidence of careful and conservative management, and will also serve to explain the success attained by this company.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

It is announced that Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, will prepare plans and specifications for repairing the damage caused by fire to Carl F. Lauber's restaurant and wholesale liquor house, at Ninth and Filbert streets.

Baker & Dallett, architects Crozer Building, have completed plans and invited estimates for alterations and additions to the residence of Charles F. Gummey, at Gwynedd, Pa. Plans provide for alterations on the first floor and minor improvements. Bids due January 14th. The following builders are bidding: J. S. Cornell & Son, J. P. Thompson.

J. Horace Cook, architect of the Board of Education, is working on plans and specifications and will be ready for bids soon, for four new public schools to be erected as follows: One to be built at Crown and Race streets, Twelfth Division, to be three stories high, of brick and stone, and will cost $65,000; one at Twenty-second and Brown streets, Twenty-seventh Division, to be three stories high, of stone, $90,000; one at Thirty-eighth and Warren streets, Twelfth Division, to be three stories high, of brick and stone and cost $55,000, and one of Eighth Division to be built at Holmesburg.

C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street, has prepared plans for a large manufacturing plant covering four acres of ground, to be located in the Twenty-fifth Ward, Philadelphia. The plans call for main machinery building, 361x81 feet; power building, 40x60 feet; wood-working building, 41x91 feet; kiln building, 20x30 feet; foundry building, 97x62 feet, with cupola and elevator house, 16x22 feet; bake-oven building, 12x14 feet; pattern storage, 51x41 feet; office building, 61x41 feet; workmen's locker and toilet building, 20x23 feet; stable and wagon building, 80x40 feet. To also have tanks for water and sprinkler purposes. Railroad siding, coal storage, lumber, iron and sand and flask storage sheds. Grinding and cleaning building, 18x35 feet. The group of buildings will be of brick, constructed in fire-proof and slow-burning construction, with all modern improvements, plumbing, drainage, steam heating, electric lighting, fan system of ventilation, etc. Contractors invited to estimate are B. P. Evans, John R. Wiggins & Co.

Bishop Hoban, of Scranton, has authorized the construction of a parochial school and parish building for St. Leo's Parish, Ashley, Pa., of which the Rev. J. V. Hussie is pastor. The building is to be from plans and specifications by Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, and will be 68x100 feet, and have two stories and a basement. Basement will be faced with Laurel Run red sandstone, and the superstructure will be of brick trimmed with the same stone. On the first floor will be five class rooms and teachers' room, and on the second floor will be an auditorium with stage and will accommodate from 600 to 700 persons. The basement will have a gymnasium, swimming pool and society rooms. Toilet rooms will be in a separate wing, and under them will be the boiler room. Heating and ventilation will be by the blower system of most approved type, and building constructed in most sanitary manner known. Building is to be completed ready for occupancy by the beginning of the school term, September next. The total cost when completed will be $35,000. Bids will be invited in the early spring.

BUILDING & REAL ESTATE NOTES.

William Steele & Sons, builders, 1600 Arch street, have plans posted for a foundry building to be erected at Seventeenth and Glenwood avenue, for Crompton & Knowles' Loom Works. It will be one-story and basement high, 38x87x110 feet and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction. Bids due at the company's office, January 13th. Thompson & Gallagher, architects and engineers, Worcester, Mass.

Herman Voight, builder 2223 Girard avenue, has been awarded the contract to build the new factory at Fifty-sixth and Woodland avenue, for the Philadelphia Screen Manufacturing Company. It will be four stories high and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and have all modern improvements and appointments.

James Lilley, builder, 1222 Snyder avenue, will erect an operation of fifty houses, on Eighteenth street, south of Wolf street. They will be two stories high, of brick, with all modern improvements, and are estimated to cost $85,000. Work will start on them as soon as possible. It is the intention of the builder to build a larger operation in this neighborhood as soon as these houses are completed.

Charles B. Prettyman, builder, Land Title Building, will erect a new hotel on South Carolina avenue, 100 feet west of the Boardwalk, Atlantic City, N. J., on the site of the present Hotel Victoria. It will be six stories and basement high, 100x150 feet and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and will contain 112 rooms, with every appointment and convenience. It is expected to start work about March the first and have the new hotel ready for guests by July 1st of this year.

Bowman Sterling, builder, 608 Chestnut street, will erect an operation of twenty-two three-story houses on the north side of Catharine street, west of Fiftieth street. They will be built in pairs and constructed of brick and will have porch fronts. They will have a new feature in a large living room with open grate for log-burnings, in the front there being no parlor. They will contain ten rooms and bath and will be wired for electricity, with combination fixtures, tile baths, heated by hot air and every modern convenience and appointment. The houses will be built on lots measuring 19 feet 6 inches x 110 feet. Will be ready for sub-bids about February 1st.

William R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, builder, has been awarded the contract to rebuild the Horse Show buildings at St. Martin's Green, Wissahickon Heights, recently destroyed by fire. There will be a club house, two stories high, 30x60 feet. The stables will be 480 feet long and 34 feet wide. There will be 70 box stalls and 48 single stalls. In the main stable there will also be an L-shaped extension to the stable, 140x220 feet. The new grandstand will be 288 feet long, 38 feet deep and will be covered. A band stand and coach houses will also be erected. The work is estimated to cost $25,000, and to be ready for the next horse show in June. The plans and specifications by Theophilus P. Chandler, architect, 328 Chestnut street.

Church will erect a parsonage. A number of sites are under consideration, but as yet none has been selected. The Building Committee consists of Rev. Howard H. Brown, George Cook, Oscar W. Taylor and William H. Canfield.

At Brown's Mills, Burlington county, it is stated that extensive alterations will be made at this resort in the pines. A company has been formed for the purpose, consisting of James B. Reilly and Adolph Morganweck, of Atlantic City, and Mahlon W. Newton, of Philadelphia. The capital of the company is $150,000.

At Asbury Park, Monmouth county, Mr. M. E. Sexton will erect a stable to cost $15,000, at 405 Monroe street. It will be fireproof in construction and will be 100x200 feet, three stories high, of brick, stone and iron, fine interior finish and all modern improvements and facilities. D. W. Sexton has been awarded the general contract.

At Collingswood, Camden county, a meeting of the School Board was held last week and it was unanimously decided to erect a new school building to cost about $15,500. The site chosen is at the southwest corner of Comley and Magill avenues, and measures 200x175 feet. The structure will be 65x68 feet, two stories high, of brick with stone trimmings, well finished interior and modern conveniences.

At Loch Arbour, Monmouth county, survveyors of the highway met last week at the Council Chamber in Allenhurst, and took preliminary steps to have the main street of Asbury Park connected with the main streets of Loch Arbour and Alenhurst. It is proposed to have the Board of Freeholders erect a bridge to connect with the present Interlaken bridge. When the bridge is completed the trolley tracks will be straightened.

At Paterson, Passaic county, the Merselis estate has adopted a set of plans for the new building to be erected on the site at the corner of Van Houten and Main streets, Paterson. It will be 50x125 feet, four stories high, of slow-burning construction, the materials being Harvard brick, terra-cotta and an iron frame. William D. Smith, 1170 Broadway, New York, is the architect. The plans have not been sent out for bids as yet, the specifications not having been drawn up.

At Bayonne, Hudson county, Mr. William Goodman will erect a four-story brick double flat, 37x75 feet. It will be well finished, open plumbing, tile work, plate and leaded glass, electric lights and the usual modern conveniences. The cost will be about $24,000. The plans have been prepared by John J. Schmidt, 352 Avenue C, Bayonne. Mr. Goodman's address is Eighteenth street and Avenue C. The same architect has prepared plans for a three-story double brick flat, 47x71 feet, to be erected for Mr. Todres Nalitski, 36 West Twenty-second street, at a cost of $20,000. It will be well finished throughout and will be provided with the usual modern conveniences.

At West New York, John G. Helmers, 431 New York avenue, Jersey City, is preparing plans for Frank Pace, for the erection of a three-story double brick and stone flat, on the west side of Bergenline avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. The building will be 30x60 feet, containing stores on the first floor, and four apartments of five rooms and bath, with all improvements. Store will have metal ceilings and side walls. The cost will be about $12,000.

At Princeton, Mercer county, it is now decided that a lake will be constructed at Princeton, to be known as Carnegie Lake. The most of the ground has been bought and the site will cover about five hundred acres. The lake will be about four hundred feet wide in most places, but at one point will measure one thousand feet, and it will extend nearly to the Princeton branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a distance of about three and a quarter miles. A boulevard will probably be constructed along the northern shore of the lake and it is expected that many boathouses will be erected and that the railroad will construct a station at the shore of the lake. The project also includes the construction of a concrete dam at Kingston, twenty-seven feet high and six hundred and fifty feet long. The ground for this improvement has been bought by Mr. Butler, Mr. Carnegie's secretary, in the name of the Princeton Lake Company. Mr. H. C. Bunn, curator of buildings and grounds, Princeton University, can give information.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

WOODS' STEEL CORNER

It is a patented steel strip that is fastened to lath, or other construction, on projecting corners, is embedded in the plaster and prevents it chipping. It does a great deal more, but our book, "Just Around the Corner," tells the rest. Send for it. A sample, too, for the asking. It costs less to put Woods' Steel Corner in a building than to keep the corners repaired.

At Cincinnati, Ohio, A. Dall & Son, of Cleveland, Ohio, have been awarded the general contract for the erection of a ten-story hotel, 60x180 feet, for Mr. H. J. Hanlin, Grand Opera Block, Cincinnati. The plans have been prepared by Architect Harry Hake, 1401 Union Trust Building,

Cincinnati, Ohio. The estimated cost is about $300,000.—Architect J. P. Striker, 612 West Fifth street, has prepared plans for a two and a half story pressed brick dwelling to be erected on Price avenue, Frick Hill, for Mr. Jacob Sprengan.—Architects Garber & Woodward, Johnston Building, have prepared plans for a flat to be erected at 521-525 West Sixth street, for Mr. J. W. Harbeson. It will be well finished and provided with modern conveniences. The architects are now ready for bids.—Architects Trellig & Lee have prepared plans for a dwelling to be erected at Avondale, for Mr. L. W. Simon. It will cost $7,000.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

H. L. Reinhold, Jr., and D. M. Van Horn, associate architects, have finished plans for a three-story residence for William P. Buchanan, to be built at Wildwood, N. J. It will be built of cement blocks and shingles and will measure 60x75 feet, and will have all modern appointments.

It is reported that a New York syndicate is getting options on the property embracing the northwest corner of Ninth and Locust streets, extending from 215 to 233 South Ninth and Duponciau and Locust streets, measuring in all about 180 feet square, with the intention of building a modern eight-story apartment house, which will cost $200,000, including the ground.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Stephen Girard Building, have invited estimates for a handsome new residence, to be built at Penn street, Frankford, Philadelphia, for Jos. Saul, Esq. It will be three stories high, of brick and stone and will have all modern improvements. Bids due January 25th. The following are bidding: Henderson & Co., A. Raymond Raff, D. W. Sperry, Jos. Ashby, Doyle & Doak and William S. Roberts.

Churchman & Thomas', architects, 532 Walnut street, plans were accepted in competition from six architects, by the School Board, for the erection of the $10,000 school to be built at Llanerch, Pa. It will be two stories high and will be constructed of stone and half timber and will measure 30x70 feet and will contain four class rooms with the usual school house appointments. Working drawings will be prepared as soon as possible and bids will be invited in a little while.

Henry Macomb, architect, Real Estate Building, is working on revised plans and specifications for the addition to the "Westley" at Wayne, Pa., for Mrs. E. T. Sentman. It will be built of brick and frame. Plans will be sent out next week and the original list of builders will be invited to bid. They are J. S. Rodgers & Son, of Stanwick, N. J.; J. D. Lengel, of Wayne, Pa.; Milton W. Young, Overbrook, Pa.; P. H. Mahan, Ardmore, Pa.; J. M. Rossiter, Radnor, Pa., and Grays Bros., of Rosemont, Pa. At a meeting recently held last week, at Rittenhouse Hall, Fifty-second street and Haverford avenue, by the Business Men's Association of the Thirty-fourth Ward, Henry Brooks, chairman of the library committee, reported that the plot of ground at Fifty-second street and Wyalusing avenue had been purchased and title taken thereto. It is the intention to have one of the Carnegie Libraries built there. The price paid was $9,600. Five hundred dollars was paid at the time of the transfer. The final settlement is to be made by June 1, 1905.

Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new stone residence for Mr. Charles M. Sheaffer, to be built at Audubon avenue and Lansdowne avenue, Wayne, Pa. It will be three stories high, 43x46 feet, with porch on front and all modern improvements. Bids due January 27th. The following are bidding: Jacob Myers & Son, Charles Palmer, King, Killough & Company, Metzger & Wells, P. J. Hurley & Co., H. Marion Zane, I. Walter Thompson, John O'Donnell and George Croll.

Roland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications for the handsome new parish house for St. Gregory's Roman Catholic congregation, to be built at Fifty-second and Lancaster avenue, and will adjoin the new church now in course of erection. It will be three stories high, 25x100 feet, and will be built of stone. The interior will be in hardwood finish. It will be heated by hot water with best plumbing, wired for electricity and every modern convenience and appointment. Plans will be sent out for bids the latter part of this week.

The T-Square Club will hold their annual architectural exhibition in the Art Club, 220 South Broad street, entrance on Chancellor street, from January 20 to February 2d inclusive. The officers and members have secured for this exhibition some of the best architects' plans and elevations of the prominent buildings in the country, and great care has been taken to make it one of the most successful ever held by the club. The public is invited to call and see this exhibition. Tickets can be secured free of charge from any of the members, or at the club house, 1208 Chancellor street.

Ralph White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new building to be built at Wood Lynne Park, near Camden, and additions to car barn at Camden, for the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey. Bids due January 19th. The following are bidding: W. J. McShane, John J. Welsh, William R. Hosier, Ed. Fay, Lewis Havens Sons. They also have sent plans and specifications to the owner, N. Fuhrman, 933 Broadway, for alterations and additions to his furnishing store. The list of builders selected and closed.

Adin Benedict Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut st., has completed plans and specifications for a beautiful residence, to be built at Melrose, Pa., for Harland J. Maynard, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high, 60x70 feet and will be built of stone. It will have a porch on the front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have every convenience and appointment. Bids due in one week's time. The following have been invited to bid: James Bartleson, F. E. Wallace, S. Thompson, Edw. Gilbert & Co., Doyle & Doak and Appleton & Burrell. This is a complete list of the builders and positively no others will be allowed to bid.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

Doyle & Doak, builders, 1509 Sanson street, have plans posted for a photograph gallery, to cost $4,000, to be built at 1313 Columbia avenue, for the estate of Mrs. O. B. Demorat.

The Select Council is stated to have passed a resolution instructing the Director of Public Works to prepare plans for widening the Chestnut street bridge over the Schuylkill River.

OF INTEREST TO ARCHITECTS, BUILDERS, ETC.

The Charles Warner Company, 810 Land Title Building, this city, and Wilmington, Del., general sales agent for The Diamond Stone-Brick, have recently placed a fine exhibit of this brick in the Builders' Exchange, 24 South Seventh street. This exhibit shows a large variety of the different colors in which this brick is manufactured, and is well worth a visit.

THE ROOFING TIN SITUATION.

Many architects do not seem to realize how much harm is done by specifying a certain brand of building material and then adding the words or equal. We know that this is due to the desire to avoid any suspicion of favoritism toward a certain particular brand. But we have evidence that this sentiment is being rapidly abandoned by the best architects everywhere, who do not hesitate to specify a well known standard article alone and insist upon its use, where they are satisfied of the superiority of that article. This is particularly the case where a certain brand stands "head and shoulders" above its competitors, since to specify that brand or equal inevitably leads to substitution of some cheaper article, probably an imitation, lacking the quality of the genuine. Carefully consider the situation—it is critical. We make what the public demands. If substitutions are allowed in place of our "Old Style" brand because its cost is necessarily higher, its sale will simply be reduced. But as our works must be fully employed they will be making the cheaper kinds the public demands. What is the result? We are not injured. Our profit is the same and inferior tin is used where the best should be. Competition in roofing tin has debased the standard of all kinds except the "Taylor Old Style." We will never change its quality—its sale will simply drop off. We want you to satisfy yourself by careful investigation that the genuine "Taylor Old Style" brand of Roofing Tin is all that we claim for it, and after you have done this we ask you to specify it alone where a durable, satisfactory roof is wanted. If the best tin is not wanted, we recommend the use of our "Columbia" brand, which is made to compete with the many imitations of the "Taylor Old Style" brand. The architect who always has to specify two or more brands because he is afraid his client will suspect him of favoritism has little faith in himself, and invites little confidence from others in his integrity. The successful man of to-day has the courage of his convictions and stands up for them. (Signed) N. and G. Taylor Co., Philadelphia, Pa., January, 1905.

BUILDING & REAL ESTATE NOTES.

B. F. Erwin, builder, 3324 North Uber street, has started work on a stable and lumber shed, to be built at Seventeenth street and Indiana avenue, for the estate of John Adams. The stable will be two stories high, of brick.

T. Gallagher, builder, 1727 South Eighteenth street, will erect an operation of twenty-one residences at Eighteenth and Wolf streets. They will be two stories high, of brick and will have all modern improvements. He is now ready for sub-bids.

Lewis Havens' Sons, builders, Girard Building, have submitted bid to the Pelham Ice Company for their new one-story office building, to be built at Wayne Junction, for the company. It will be constructed of brick and will contain clerical and directors' rooms, and have the usual appointments. The plans and specifications were prepared by Albert W. Dilks, architect, Mutual Life Building.

James Reilly, builder, Morris ave., Chestnut Hill, has been awarded the contract to build the new residence of A. P. Rosenberger, at Elkins, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, 30x32 feet, with a kitchen wing and will be built of stone and plaster. It will have a porch on the front and will have all modern improvements. The plans are by L. V. Boyd, architect, Harriss Building.

The Charles McCaul Co., of 10 North Eleventh street, Philadelphia, Pa., and Baltimore, Maryland, have plans posted for a new warehouse, to be built at 109-111 Cheapside street, Baltimore, Md., for Walter C. Nimmo. It will be four stories high, 42x66 feet, and will be built of brick and mill construction. The plans are by J. E. Lafferty, Architects' and Builders' Exchange Building, that city.

The addition and alteration to the building at Tenth and Market streets, Wilmington, Del., owners, First Presbyterian Church of that town, will be done by sub-contractors under the supervision of Joseph S. Hamilton, builder, of 605 Franklin street, also of Wilmington, Del. The plans provide for a three-story addition of brick and general interior improvements. Totten & Rodgers, of Keith Building, this city, are the architects.

Burd P. Evans, builder, 706 North Ninth street, has plans posted for thirteen dwellings for Ezra D. Anderson, to be built at Keyser and Seymour streets. They will be twelve three-stories and one two-story brick dwellings, and will be built of brick, and contain all modern improvements. He is now taking sub-bids for the erection of these houses until January 23d. He is also figuring on the repairs to the building at 919 Walnut street, (caused by fire recently,) for C. C. Harrison, owner, according to the plans of Cope and Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street.

Scott & Kriebel and Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., builders, have plans posted and request sub-bids for a new residence to be built at Youngstown, Ohio, for George D. Wick, Esq. It will be three stories high, of brick and will have a porch on the front, the interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have every convenience and appointment. Bids due January 24. The plans and specifications are by Charles Barton Keen, architect, Bailey Building.

John Larsen & Son, builders, Atlantic City, N. J., have been awarded the contract to make the alterations and build the addition to a hotel on Kentucky avenue near the beach, that place, for Samuel Jamison, of 3 and 5 South Water street, this city. The addition will be six stories high, 40x150 feet, and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction. The plans and specifications are by S. Hudson Vaughn, architect, Law Building, Atlantic City, N. J.

John McShain, builder, 631 North Seventeenth street, has been awarded the contract to build the handsome new edifice for St. Gregory's Roman Catholic congregation, at Fifty-second and Lancaster avenue. It will be one-story and basement high, 65x126 feet and will be built of Port Deposit stone with Indiana limestone trimmings with a polished granite base, and have the usual ecclesiastical furnishings. The plans and specifications by Roland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street.

Bids for the construction of a building at the northeast corner of Twenty-second and Arch streets, for the care and maintenance of juvenile prisoners awaiting trial, have been opened up by the City Commissioners. The bids were as follows: Henderson & Co., $78,277, to complete building in 190 days; John R. Wiggins & Co., $88,876, in 150 days, and John W. Enery, $97,196, in 210 days. The bids were scheduled. The plans and specifications were by Philip H. Johnson, architect and engineer.

Metzger & Wells, builders, Heed Building, have submitted bids to McIlvaine & Company, Land Title Building, for house No. 151, to be built at Ardmore, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, of brick. Plans by McIlvaine & Roberts, architects, same building. They have also submitted bids to H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut st., for the new residence of Thomas Daws, to be built at the same place. It will be two and a half stories high, 17x42 feet, and will be built of brick with all modern improvements.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Fields & Medary, architects, 1414 South Penn Square, have been selected to prepare plans and specifications for the proposed new Carnegie Library, to be built at the southwest corner of Seventeenth and Spring Garden streets, upon the site donated to the city for that purpose. As possession will not be secured on this property until June 1st, it is too early for details.

J. Horace Cook, Architect of Board of Education, City Hall, has completed plans and specifications, and bids will be advertised for on January 27th, for the erection of four schools, to be erected at a cost of $300,000; one at Twenty-second and Brown streets, one at Thirty-eighth and Warren streets, one at Crown and Race streets, and the fourth at Holmesburg. Bids due on February 7th.

Harry Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, is taking bids at his office for the residence to be erected at Ardmore, Pa. He is also preparing plans and specifications for a large grocery store to be erected on West Chester Pike at Llanerch, Pa., for the Llanerch Improvement Company. It will be two and a half stories high, 60x65 feet, and will be built of Pompeian brick with copper trimmings, Spanish tile roof with all improvements.

At Baltimore, Md., the building committee of the Maryland Institute invites all architects who wish to submit competitive plans for its new building, to send their names and addresses before January 30th, 1905, and a prospectus, showing the particulars of the building, will be sent those making application. The cost of the proposed building will be about $500,000. Mr. John M. Carter, 222 St. Paul street, Baltimore, is chairman of the building committee.

Edward P. Simon and David B. Bassett, associate architects, 1220 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions to store and residence at Point Breeze and Titan street, for R. F. Potter. Plans provide for the building of an addition, two stories, 22x50 feet, of brick, and general interior improvements. Bids due January 30. Davis & Deacon, Smith & Hardigan, Lewis Havens & Sons, Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., and Lynch Bros. are bidding.

Brookie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street, have invited estimates for warehouse No. 5 for Thomas Roberts, to be built at 117 to 123 South Second street. It will be five stories and basement high, 61x73 feet, and will be built of brick and steel and will be fire-proof. Bids due January 27th. The following builders are invited to bid:

Charles Gilpin, William Steele & Sons, Geo. L. Sipps, Doyle & Doak, Roydhouse, Arey & Co., M. P. Boyd Co., F. L. Hoover & Sons, Inc., and Appleton & Burrell.

Rowland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the handsome new parish house for St. Gregory's Roman Catholic congregation, to be built at Fifty-second and Lancaster avenue, adjoining the new church. It will be three stories high, 25x100 feet, and will be built of stone. (Details previously noted.) Bids due February 3d. The following builders are bidding: William McShane, John McShain, P. J. Hurley, Camblos & Co., F. D. Maguire and James Doyle.

Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building, Camden, N. J., has invited estimates for a warehouse for Gately & Hurley, to be built at Camden, N. J. It will be five stories and basement high, 40x125 feet and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and have all modern improvements. The following builders are bidding: William Wrifford & Sons, Turner & Stewart, John J. Welsh, George F. Bachman, of Camden, N. J., and Charles E. Bell and P. J. Hurley, of this city, are bidding. Bids due January 30.

In a recent interview with Mr. Jackson, the vice-president of the Guard Trust Company, he informed us that the erection of their new building on the northwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets, on the property owned by them, would be taken up in the near future and they have the leases so arranged that they can secure possession in a little while if necessary. The company is still undecided in regard to the number of stories the building will be, also in regard to the architect. While they might commission an architect to prepare plans they also might invite a number of architects to prepare plans in competition, but there is nothing definite yet in regard to these matters.

Ralph E. White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the remodeling of the building at 1412-14 Chestnut street, for Clarence B. Kugler, into a cafe, restaurant and banquet hall, details of this work previously noted in these columns. The estimated cost is $50,000. The following work is reserved: Electric work, power plant, refrigerating plant, refrigerator, kitchen and hotel fixtures, steel lockers, ice boxes, tile and mosaic work, ornamental fountain, leaded glass and electric fixtures, revolving doors, hardware, decorations and furniture. Bids due February 9th. The following builders are bidding: Doyle & Doak, Jacob Myers & Sons, Henderson & Co., John Wiggins & Co., James Bradin, Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., G. A. Glenn & Co., Lewis Havens & Sons, William McShane, Metzger & Wells and Geo. F. Payne & Co.

The building committee of the Calvary M. E. Church, Rev. A. E. Piper, 906 Farragut street, chairman of the committee, have invited bids for the new church and remodeling the chapel for that congregation, to be built at Forty-eighth street and Baltimore avenue. The new church will be two stories high, 110x120 feet, and will be built of stone and have the usual church furnishings and will contain assembly room, gymnasium, kitchen, dining room, parlor, play room, etc. Plans by William H. Brown, architect, and Gillespie & Carrel, associated, 1123 Broadway, New York City. E. J. Hedden, Lynch Bros, Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., Henderson & Co., William R. Dougherty, Doyle & Doak, Cramp & Co., H. B. Shoemaker Co., Jacob Myers & Son, F. S. Riggs, William Steele & Sons, The Charles McCaul Co., James Johnson, A. H. Williams & Sons, Burd P. Evans, Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., H. C. Dahl, Harrison C. Rea, F. L. Hoover & Son, Inc., J. W. Emery, Herman Voigt, of this city; J. S. Rogers & Co., of Stanwick, N. J., and W. O. Weaver & Sons, of Harrisburg, Pa., builders, are estimating.

It is stated that Architects Poindexter, Flournoy & Miller, of Washington, D. C., will prepare plans for a large apartment house, to be erected in Baltimore, Md., at the southeast corner of Eutaw Place and Mosher street, at a cost, including the site, of about $800,000. Mr. William J. Miller is forming a company to finance the enterprise. The structure will be known as the Marlborough Apartment Hotel, and it will contain about one hundred and twenty finely finished and thoroughly appointed rooms, with all modern conveniences. It will be of fire-proof construction throughout, with a Norman roof, forty-five feet high. The exterior will be of steel and concrete. The first floor will contain a beautiful foyer with a grand stairway finished in Sienna marble and mahogany. There will be a large dining-room, 40x130 feet also finished in Sienna marble and mahogany, fire-proof vaults, with safe deposit box for each room, ladies' drawing room, 40x63 feet, buffet, barber shop, laundry, kitchens, heating and lighting plants will occupy the basement. Each housekeeping suite from the third floor up will contain from five to nine rooms each, with baths. There will also be a number of bachelor apartments, refrigerating plant, sanitary plumbing, etc. Mr. George G. Gambrell and Mr. T. Edward Gresslee are interested.

Charles E. Oelschlager, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications for six stores and dwellings, to be built at Sixtieth and Spruce streets. Bids for all work are due at his office on Saturday, January 28th. Work will be done by general contract.

George I. Lovatt, architect, 418 Walnut street, has plans in the course of preparation for alterations and additions to store building, 126 South Broad street, Trenton, N. J., Gately & Fitzgerald, owners. Plans provide for new front and general interior improvements; also, the building of another story, elevator, steam heat, etc.

W. L. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the five new soap factories to be built at Chester, Pa., for Mr. Elkington. They will be two and three stories high and be built of brick and have all modern improvements. Bids due January 31. Lynch Bros. are bidding.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

Millard & McGraw, builders, Arcade Building, have plans posted for the pumping station to be built for the city, at Lardner's Point, Forty-first ward. Bids due on February 1st.

William Hertelmyer, builder, 770 East Cheltenham avenue, has started work on a new residence to be built at Locust avenue, east of Bloyd street. It will be two stories high, 18x48 feet, and will be built of brick.

A. H. and G. W. Jones, 909 Harry street, Conshohocken, Pa., will build the addition of brick, one-story, 120x50 feet, to the factory of John Wood Manufacturing Company, at that place, according to the plans of Savery, Schetz & Savery, architects, Stephen Girard Building.

Edward Fay, builder, 2666 Richmond street, has started work on two new residences, to be built at Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, for Hannah L. Miller. They will be three-stories high and be built of brick. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will have every convenience and appointment.

James E. Clark, operative builder, Weightman Building, will erect an operation of 136 houses, on the block embracing Chester to Springfield avenues, Fifty-seventh to Fifty-eighth street. They will be two and three stories high, porch front, and will be built of brick, and contain all modern improvements. He is now ready for sub-bids.

Milton W. Young, builder, Overbrook, Pa., has started work on a new residence, to be built on the south side of Overbrook avenue west of Sixty-fourth street, for Wendell & Smith. It will be three stories high, of brick, 29x35 feet and have all modern improvements and will cost $9,000. Plans by W. F. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street.

W. Wetherstone, builder, of 203 E. Cliveden avenue, Germantown, will break ground in the early spring for a twin house, to adjoin his present residence on Cliveden avenue. It will be three stories, of brick, 33x53 feet, with a porch on the front and side. The interior will be hardwood finish and will have every convenience and appointment.

Doyle & Doak and William C. Christy & Son, builders, have plans posted for a handsome four-story, red sandstone front residence, to be built at 338 South Fifteenth street. It will measure 16x84 feet. The interior will be in hardwood finish with tile and mosaic work and all modern improvements. Plans by Philip H. Johnson, architect and engineer, Land Title Building.

The three-story building at 1319 Filbert street, lot 21x150 feet deep to Cuthbert street, has been sold to Henry S. Cattell, for a price close to $75,000. He had recently purchased the old gas house property at the southeast corner of Juniper and Filbert streets, which has a frontage of 42 feet on Filbert street and a depth of 150 feet along Juniper street. It is reported that Mr. Cattell will erect a new building on these properties.

Bowman Sterling, builder, 608 Chestnut street, will be ready the early part of next week, for sub-bids on the operation of twenty-two three-story houses, to be built on the north side of Catharine street, west of Fiftieth street. Details previously noted.

THROUGH PENNSYLVANIA.

—At Reading, Berks county, the Prospect Dye Works were damaged by fire, last week, to the amount of $30,000.

—At Darby, Delaware county, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will erect a new bridge over Darby Creek, in Darby Borough.

—At Coatesville, Chester county, extensive improvements will be made to the tube works of North Brothers, including the construction of two new welding furnaces.

—At Linglestown, Dauphin county, the members of the Bethel Church of God will erect a new church in a short time. Rev. J. D. Clark is the pastor and can give information.

—At West Chester, Chester county, Mr. Joseph H. Baldwin, Esq., has sold six lots on West Union street, as follows: Three lots to Edward E. Shields, and three to Herman Benkendorf.

—At Newcastle, Lawrence county, Fissell & Wagner, of New York City, were the lowest bidders for the erection of the new postoffice building, to be erected at Newcastle, by the government.

—At Carnegie, Allegheny county, Mr. C. A. Foster will erect a handsome dwelling, on Washington avenue, from plans prepared by E. J. Carlisle & Co., Westinghouse Building, Pittsburgh, Pa. Cost, $25,000.

—At Chester, Delaware county, it is stated that the Bell Telephone Company will erect a handsome building for office and exchange purposes, on East Fifth street. The estimated cost of the building is $25,000.

—At Shamokin, Northumberland county, a handsome church, to cost $50,000, will be erected from plans prepared by Architect Ernest E. Quaife, 708 Grand street, Jersey City, N. J. The plans will be ready for estimates in a few days.

—At Braddock, Allegheny county, the congregation of the First Methodist Protestant Church has bought a site in Rankin, just over the Braddock Borough line, and a new church will be erected next summer. Rev. George H. Sisson, D. D., is the pastor.

—At Coraopolis, Allegheny county, Mr. Henry Wurzel will erect a frame dwelling from plans prepared by Architects Earl Brothers, Penn avenue, Monica, Pa. The structure will be well finished throughout and will be provided with the usual modern conveniences.

—At Hummelstown, Dauphin county, ground has been broken by the Hummelstown Brown Stone Co. for a new brick building, one-story high and to contain forty thousand square feet of floor space and to be used for the manufacture of a brick from refuse stone.

—At Scranton, Lackawanna county, a conference will be held by the Board of Trade and the County Commissioners, to discuss the subject of an annex to the present court house, and to confer with the judges on the matter. The proposed annex will cost about $300,000.

—At Tarentum, Allegheny county, Mr. Joseph Bordonara will erect a brick store and flat, at Corbett and Fourth avenues, from plans prepared by Architect Harvey Brakeman, New Kensington, Pa. The interior will be well finished, open plumbing, and the usual modern conveniences. The estimated cost is $8,000.

—At Media, Delaware county, a deed has just been recorded transferring land in Tinticon to the Independent Singers' Singing Society's estate, of Pennsylvania. The price paid was $100,000. The Society will make extensive improvements to the tract and will fit it up for park purposes. A large athletic field will be laid out and the whole so improved as to make it one of the finest parks of the kind in the State.

—At Lima, Delaware county, it is stated that work on the new county hospital for the insane will be begun in the spring. Newton P. West, one of the Directors of the Poor, has notified the Board of County Commissioners that the Directors will be ready to advertise for bids in a few days. The cost of the building will be about $130,000, and about $10,000 has been set aside for furnishing.

—At Harrisburg, Mr. Maust, of Cumberland, has asked the Legislature to appropriate $10,000 for the Todd Hospital at Carlisle, Pa.—A conference has been held in regard to the proposed dam across the Susquehanna River. The meeting was held at the law office of F. B. Wickersham, Dauphin county's representative in the Legislature. Jacob Tausig & Sons will remodel the building at Market street and Aberdeen avenue and will occupy the first floor. The other floors will be fitted up for office purposes.

—At Lebanon, Lebanon county, it is stated that extensive improvements will be made to the Eagle Hotel, at the southeast corner of Ninth and Cumberland streets. The site is 100x163 feet. The present building will be thoroughly renovated and enlarged to a nine-story structure of brick and stone. The interior will be finely finished, sanitary plumbing, handsomely equipped and finished bath rooms and lavatories, tiling, heating plant, electric lights, elevator and all modern conveniences. Mr. Asa A. Weimer, one of the owners, can give information.

—At Allegheny, Allegheny county, the School Board has completed negotiations for the purchase of the old Taggart homestead at Irwin avenue and O'Hern street, at present owned by William P. Brown, chief clerk of the City Treasurer's office of Allegheny. The ground, which is 107x105 feet, will be used as a site for the proposed industrial and trade school. The plans for this school are preparing by Architect F. C. Sauer, 804 Penn avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. These call for a large four-story building, to be equipped with all modern facilities for a trade school. The cost, not including appurtenances and furnishings, will be about $140,000.

—At Lansdowne, William C. Shuster, Jr., will break ground in February for a dwelling, to be erected for Mr. A. J. Delacova, of Philadelphia.—Mr. Geo. F. ## The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

$5.00 PER YEAR.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

W. L. Plack, architect and engineer, 1208 Chestnut street, plans have been accepted by the commission for the addition to the court house at Hollidaysburg, Blair county, Pa. The proposed addition will cost about $75,000. Details will be given later.

J. Horace Cook, architect of the Board of Education, City Hall, is working on plans and specifications and they will be ready for bids in about one month's time for the new $350,000 manual training school, to be built at Broad and Jackson streets. It will be four stories high, of brick and stone, with all the modern conveniences and appointments.

Carl P. Berger, architect, So. Penn Square Bldg., has sent out plans and specifications for alterations and additions to 1637 North Broad street, The Maennerchor. New dining room, music room, billiard room and bowling alleys and alterations to interior of old building. Bids due Saturday, February 4th. Bidders: John N. Gill, John Delp, A. Raymond Raff, Heist & Doherty and Herman Voigt.

At Baltimore, Architects Torney & Leach have been selected to prepare plans for an addition to the Royal Arcanum Building, on Saratoga street. The addition will be two stories high, 30x100 feet. The first floor will contain four bowling alleys and toilet rooms, a large assembly hall, with well-equipped stage, and three dressing rooms will occupy the second floor. This hall will be 28x98 feet and the stage will be 10x20 feet.

Savery, Scheetz & Savery and Addison Hutton, consulting architects, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and improvements to 1024-26 Chestnut street, for Lewis Blank & Son. The plans provide for a new front of cut stone, copper, with polished plate glass and marble, elevators, etc. Bids due February 4th. The following builders are bidding: Roydhouse, Arey & Co., R. C. Ballinger & Co.

Amos W. Barnes, architect and engineer, 901 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, for an operation of forty-five twin houses and sixty-eight two-story houses, to be erected on Baltimore avenue. Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Alden and Cecil streets, West Philadelphia. John Maddock, 1001 Chestnut street, owner, will take bids. They will have hardwood on the interior and will contain all modern improvements and conveniences.

Edwin F. Durang, architect, Twelfth and Chestnut streets, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new parochial school, to be built on Christian street above Ninth street, for the St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church. It will be three stories high, 160x60 feet, and will be built of brick and have all modern improvements. Bids due February 10th. Melody & Keating, Michael Magee, Geo. Dietrich, C. Kelly, James Doyle, William McShane and John McKenna & Son are bidding.

M. H. Dickinson, architect and engineer, Land Title Building, has completed plans and invited estimates from sub-contractors, until February 4th, for the new residence to be built at Spruce and Millville streets, West Philadelphia, for Francis Hill, Esq. It will be three stories high, 28x64 feet and will be built of brick and stone with Spanish tile roof. It will have a porch on front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will be heated by hot water, wired for electricity and have all modern improvements.

Adin Benedict Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the stable to be built at Melrose, Pa., for Harland J. Maynard, Esq. It will be one-story and loft high and will be built of stone. The following builders are bidding: F. E. Wallace, James Bartelson, G. Thompson, Edw. Gilbert & Co., Doyle & Doak and Appleton & Burrell. The contract for a new residence for Mr. Maynard will be held in abeyance until the stable bids come in, when they will be awarded together.

The regular meeting of the T-Square Club will be held at 1204 Lyndel Alley, on Wednesday evening, February 1st. The drawings of the third competition in the year's series, "What the New T-Square Club House Will Look Like," will be hung, criticised and voted for. While the programme calls for more or less burlesque, the committee finds the subject of obtaining new quarters a very serious one. The following gentlemen will be presented for active membership: Lawrence Clark, A. C. Howard, David L. McClay and Charles L. Bourne, Jr.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, as a result of a competition among a number of architects, has selected Herbert D. Hale and Parker & Thomas, associated architects, the latter named firm's offices at Charles and Fayette streets, Baltimore, Md., and the former's offices in Boston and New York City, to prepare plans and specifications for the new office building, to be located at the northwest corner of Baltimore and Charles street, Baltimore, Md. The structure will be thirteen stories and basement high, 108x155 feet, with a frontage on Charles and Baltimore streets. The main entrance will be on Charles street. Maryland granite will be used on the three lower stories and light-colored brick and terracotta will be used above. It will be of steel frame construction and will be fire-proof throughout. It will be wired for electricity, heated by steam, with passenger and freight elevators and every modern convenience and appointment, and is estimated to cost $1,500,000. Working drawings will be prepared as soon as possible and bids invited in the near future.

J. Horace Cook, Architect of the Board of Education, City Hall, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the four schools to be built at a cost of $300,000; one at Twenty-second and Brown streets, one at Thirty-eighth and Warren streets, one at Crown and Race streets and one at Rhawn and Ditman streets. They will be three stories high and be built of brick and stone and have the usual appointments. Bids due February 7th, 2.30 P. M. The following builders are bidding up to the time of going to press: Thos. Reilly, E. F. Fonder Henderson & Company, Ltd., Lynch Bros. and Metzger & Wells, Wm. Christy & Son.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

The Otto Gas Engine Works, of this city, have decided to locate in Wilmington, Del. They have purchased a site along the Christiana River, that city, and will erect their new plant as soon as possible. Plans and specifications will be prepared and bids invited as soon as possible. Mr. Alfred O. Crozier has the matter in charge.

Cruninger Brothers, builders, 2314 Orthodox street, Frankford, have plans posted and have invited sub-bids for six houses, to be built at Melrose above Margaret street, Frankford, Phila. They will be two stories high and will be built of brick; will have porches on the fronts, and the interior will be in hardwood finish and will have every convenience and appointment.

William B. Lawall and Hill & Stevens, builders, have submitted bids for the new residence, to be built at Seventieth avenue and Oak Lane, Philadelphia. It will be two and a half stories high, 57x28 feet, and will be built of frame and stone. It will have a porch on the front, the interior will be finished in hardwood and it will have every convenience and appointment.

The Cheltenham Township, care of John Benton Hoover, will advertise for bids, on February 10th, for the proposed new high school, to be built at Elkins, Pa., at a cost of $50,000. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone, and contain all modern improvements. The plans and specifications are by Brockie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street.

REMOVED.

The John L. Gaumer Company have removed their office and works to the northeast corner of Twenty-second and Wood streets. The steady growth of the business of this concern necessitated additional floor space. In their new location they will have greatly improved and much larger facilities.

STILL GROWING IN EVERY DIRECTION.

The Hall-Kline Company, dealers in mosaic tile work in all its branches, also in wood mantels, wardrobes, etc., heaters and ranges, as well as their installation, report a wonderful growth of business last year; so much, indeed, as to necessitate the addition of the building at 1931 Market street to the company's stores and show rooms, 1927 and 1929 Market street.

As an example of artistic mosaic work the Hall-Kline Company invite an inspection of the entrance of the Jacob Reed's Sons new building, on Chestnut street below Fifteenth street.

The subject is the reproduction of an Egyptian antique, and is noted for its unique beauty as well as its rich attractive colors.

It is held that this is a masterpiece of American art in mosaic, and the company take pride in the fact that the work was done by their workmen. Parquetry flooring has been added as one of the branches of the interior working department of this concern.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

Frank Smith, builder, at Wildwood, N. J., has been awarded the contract to build the new cottage at that place, for Thomas Martindale, of this city, according to the plans and specifications by Harry Reinhold, Jr., and D. M. Van Horn, associate architects.

Bids will be opened on February 2d, for improvement, extension and filtration of the water supply, at the Bureau of Filtration office, in the Director's Room, 216 City Hall. Also, contract No. 31 for coal handling machinery and pockets for Lardner's Point Pumping Stations Nos. 2 and 3.

A. H. Ritter has purchased the property at the southeast corner of Twentieth and Sansom streets. The lot will measure 30x80-feet and was owned by the estate of Dr. David Jayne, and sold by Samuel T. Freeman & Company, auctioneers, for $33,000.

Adolph Christensen, practical pointer and renovator, 1433 Brown street, has been awarded the contract for pointing the stone work on the Germantown Savings Fund Bank Building, School Lane and Germantown avenue; and also, pointing the stone work on the new City Library Building, Camden, N. J.

John R. Wiggins & Co., builders, Heed Building, have started work on the alterations to the Arc Light Shop of the Philadelphia Electric Company, at Pennsylvania avenue north of Girard avenue. It will be built of brick and steel and will be fire-proof. The plans and specifications are by John T. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street.

Smith & Hardigan, builders, Perry Building, have submitted revised estimates with Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building, for the new fire house, to be built at Elkins' Park, Pa., for the Old York Road Fire Company. It will be stone and frame, two and a half stories high and will have all modern improvements.

Philip Haibach, builder, Twenty-sixth and Thompson streets, has plans posted for alterations to the hotel at Fifteenth and Cherry streets, for G. E. Brogley, owner.

Lewis Havens' Sons, builders, Girard Building, have plans posted for the addition to the factory at Jasper and Lehigh avenues, for the Hulton Dyeing and Finishing Company, Inc.

F. L. Pocht & Co., builders, at Reading, Pa., have been awarded the contract to build the new apartment house at Reading, Pa., to be built at Sixth and Elm streets, that city. It will be four stories and basement high, 60x100 feet, and will be built of brick and stone, with all modern improvements. The plans and specifications are by W. W. Bretherick, architect, 905 Walnut street.

Charles Gilpin, builder, Pennsylvania Building and Baltimore, Md., has been awarded the contract to build a fifteen-story office building, at Baltimore and Calvert streets, Baltimore, Md., for the Maryland Realty Company. It will be built of brick and stone, and have elevators, steam heat and all modern improvements. The plans and specifications by George S. Cooper, architect, Washington, D. C.

P. J. Hurley, builder, 1216 Chancellor street, has submitted bid for the new residence, to be built at Frankford avenue and Church streets, Philadelphia, for James T. Nulty. It will be three stories high, of brick and stone. The interior will be in hardwood finish. It will be heated by hot air, wired for electricity and have every convenience and appointment. The plans and specifications are by Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple.

Smith, Hardican Company, builders, Perry building, have been awarded the contract to build the new residence at Oak Lane, for Alex. B. Bassett, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone and frame and will cost $8,000. Plans by David B. Bassett, architect, 1229 Walnut street.

Senator John M. Scott has introduced in the Legislature a bill embodying the recommendations of the Medical Society and endorsed by the Department of Public Health and Charities, to appropriate $500,000, for the establishment in Franklin county of a forest reserve of from 500 to 1,000 acres in extent, to be devoted to the care and cure of consumptives. It is the intention of erecting a sanitarium and hospital for the cure of consumption.

Henderson & Company, Ltd., builders, have plans posted until February 6th, for the dining hall and dormitory for the Jacob Toms Institute, at Port Deposit, Md. Plans and specifications by Wyatt & Nolting, architects, Baltimore, Md. They also have plans posted for a warehouse, to be built at 316 West German street, for Jacob Schoenman, Esq. It will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and will be fire-proof. Plans by Lewis Levi, architect, Baltimore, Md.

The Charles McCaul Company, builders, have been awarded the contract to build the $20,000 shop for the Belmont Iron Works, at Eddystone, Pa. It will be one and two stories high and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and will have the usual appointments.—They will also erect a storage house, six stories high, at Lombard and Charles streets, Baltimore, Md., for Rebecca F. Dix. The proposed new building will cost $50,000, and will be built of brick and slow-burning material.

Wells Brothers & Company, builders, Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia, have been awarded the contract to build the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, at Baltimore, Md. It will be two stories high and will be built of stone and have all the usual bank appointments. They also have been added to the list of builders for the remodeling of the building at 1412-14 Chestnut street, for Clarence B. Kugler, according to the plans of Ralph E. White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building.

William Provost, builder, Chester, Pa., has been awarded the contract to build the new residence, at Chester, Pa., for W. L. McFarland, of that place. It will be three stories high and will be built of stone and will be Colonial in design. It will have a porch on the front. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have all modern appointments and conveniences and will cost $20,000. The plans and specifications are by Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, this city. Work will start at once.

Schramm is the pastor and can give information.—It is said that two brick warehouses, to cost $40,000, will be erected from plans prepared by Architect A. C. Schotte, 541 Wood street, Pittsburg, Pa.—Plans have been prepared by Architect J. A. Robertson, Boyle street, Allegheny, for three brick dwellings, to be erected on Charles street, Allegheny. They will be well finished and provided with modern conveniences.

—At Harrisburg, Councilman Wagner, chairman of the Sanitary Committee, has decided to call a meeting of his committee to discuss the subject of erecting a new building for the Sanitary Hospital, instead of erecting an addition to the present building, as had been proposed. The building proposed is to be fire-proof in construction and thoroughly equipped with all modern conveniences for the treatment of infectious diseases. It will be of brick and will be two stories high, well finished interior, open plumbing, etc. There will be separate wards for the sexes and the races as well as wards for private patients.

—At Harrisburg, Mr. Dunn, of Philadelphia, has introduced a bill in the Legislature to appropriate $200,000 to buy a site to erect an industrial school in Pennsylvania, for negroes, along the lines pursued by Booker T. Washington. A board of commissioners is to be appointed by the Governor to exist for two years. The site must contain at least one hundred acres and must not cost more than $100,000. The other $100,000 is to be used for the necessary buildings and their equipment.—It is stated that Architect Huston has been consulted with regard to better ventilation facilities for the new capital building.

—At Harrisburg, the Soldiers' Orphans School Commission, organized not long since, Governor Pennypacker, president, and Richard H. Holgate, of Scranton, Pa., secretary. Recently the Commission bought sixty-one acres of ground adjoining the Scotland School, and if sufficient money is appropriated by the Legislature, the schools at Chester Springs, Pa., and Jumboville, Pa., will be moved to Scotland, Pa., in which case a number of cottages will be erected and other improvements made to fit up the school for a larger number of pupils. Representative Riebel, of Philadelphia, is a member of the commission.

—At Erie, Erie county, a two and a half story dwelling will be erected by A. G. Schmitt, 12 West Seventh street. It will

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

At Jackson, Miss., the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Methodist Orphanage has bought a site and will erect a building to cost about $30,000.

At Knoxville, Tenn., it is stated that the Mechanics' National Bank will erect a new building, ten stories high, of steel frame fire-proof construction and all modern improvements.

At Houston, Texas, St. Mary's Episcopal congregation will erect a church, parish house and rectory, all to be well finished and equipped with modern conveniences. Rev. William Hart is the rector.

At Lynchburg, Va., the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, of which George E. Caskie is the chairman, have decided to erect two new buildings, to be used as dining hall and dormitory.

At Memphis, Tenn., the Luehrmann Hotel Company has been incorporated with a capital of $100,000, to erect and operate a hotel. Henry Luehrmann, Henry Luehrmann, Jr., Robert E. Hagerty, Fritz Waechter and William Otte compose the company.

At Louisville, Ky., the contract for the erection of an armory has been awarded to Caldwell & Drake, of Columbus, Ind., for $297,263. The plans were prepared by Architect Brinton B. Davis. The structure will be of brick and stone, finely finished throughout and thoroughly equipped with modern conveniences.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Ralph E. White & Co., architects, Pennsylvania Building, have completed plans and specifications for the remodeling of 1412-14 Chestnut street for the Homer estate for the Land Title Company.

F. W. Darlington, engineer, Real Estate Building, has plans in the course of preparation, for a new electric plant, to be built at Tamaqua, Pa., for the Tamaqua Electric Company. John McGinty, president.

Price & McLanahan, architects, 1624 Walnut street, have completed plans and invited estimates for the new residence, to be built at Indianapolis, Ind., for Frank Van Camp, Esq. It will be three stories high, of stone, 103x50 feet, with a servants' wing, 56x30 feet. It will have a porch on the front and the interior will be in hardwood finish. It will be wired for electricity and have every convenience and appointment.

Wilson, Harris & Richards, architects and engineers, Drexel Building, have invited estimates for alterations to store building at 2629 Germantown avenue for S. E. Berger. Bids due February 10th. The following builders are bidding: Appleton & Burrell, F. E. Havens, H. E. Havens, King, Killough & Co., D. A. McClelland, J. E. & A. L. Pennock, A. Raymond Raff, Warner & Stinson, J. R. Wiggins & Co., Thos. Reilly and James Dorff.

Bids will be filed with Adin Benedict Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut street, on February 9th for the new residence of Charles Henry Jones, Esq., to be built at Rydal, Pa. It will be three stories high, Colonial in design and will be built of stone and pebble dashed. It will measure 37x26 feet, with a wing 10x20 feet. The following builders have submitted bids: James Bartleson, of Ambler; E. B. Weaver, Abington, Pa.; F. E. Wallace, R. C. Ballinger & Co., A. H. Williams & Son, William R. Dougherty, Smith & Hardican, of this city.

Architects and Engineers Ballinger & Perrot, 1200 Chestnut street, of this city, are preparing plans for a chapel to be built on the site of the old Indian village, Ossernenon, now Auriesville, New York, in the Mohawk Valley, about forty miles west of Albany. The structure will be built to accommodate the pilgrims who come from all over the United States to visit this spot hallowed by the deaths of the old Indian missionaries, who came from France in the early part of the seventeenth century and were massacred by the Iroquois Indians.

Rowland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications for new Italian marble main, and side altars, altar rail, sanctuary, wainscoting, tile and platform for the Church of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, at Sixty-third and Callowhill streets. Rev. Father Lynch is the pastor. ### THE PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY'S REPORT FOR 1904.

Through inadvertence we omitted to refer to the magnificent statement shown in the fifty-seventh annual report of this company in our issue of February 1st last. It is not too late to make special reference to the wonderful record of this old, Philadelphia's favorite life insurance company made last year as a result of the very wise and conservative management of its president, Mr. Harry F. West, ably seconded by his numerous assistants, representing perhaps as bright and clever a coterie of life insurance men as can be found in any similar institution in the world. As an item of this company's business for 1904, it is stated that 33,871 new policies were issued during the year, representing life insurance amounting to $80,386,109.00. With a total surplus of $8,960,620.48, this item conveys to the patrons of this highly successful and respected institution the strongest possible assurance of the self-same characteristic safety which has been associated with this company from its very inception. Economical management has a telling effect in institutions of this character, and this is a distinguished feature of the wise men who have the affairs of this company in charge.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

F. C. Michaelson, builder, 841 Land Title Building, has plans posted for stable addition to George Hausman, at Fifty-first and Westmoreland streets.

THROUGH DELAWARE.

At Wilmington, extensive improvements will be made to the plant of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Ship Building Company. The old dry-dock will be completely rebuilt and lengthened twenty-five feet. A new steel car erecting shop is also to be built, capable of accommodating twenty coaches, each 80 feet long. This will increase the car building capacity and enable the company to handle 57 cars at one time, an increase of twenty over the present number. One of the greatest improvements, however, will be a new boiler shop, 300 feet long and 125 feet wide, built of structural steel and equipped with the latest machinery for boiler making. This will be the most up-to-date boiler shop in the country and will have a capacity of one marine type boiler a week. In this shop there will be four electric cranes of the latest type, with capacity of 50, 30, 25 and 10 tons respectively. This shop will be a model in every respect. The present blacksmith shop will be turned into a power plant for the purpose of generating electricity and compressed air to supply the various portions of the plant with power. Wherever possible it is proposed to do away with steam engines and substitute electric motors or compressed air apparatus. This is the plan now followed in up-to-date plants. There will be a number of other minor changes made.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Harry Macomb, architect, has moved from the sixteenth floor of the Real Estate Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, to 717 Walnut street.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, are working on revised plans and specifications for a flat house, to be built at Forty-eighth street and Baltimore avenue. It will be five stories high and contain 100 rooms with all modern improvements. Will be ready for bids in about two weeks.

Morris & Vaux, architects, Stephen Girard Building, have completed plans and specifications for a new residence to be built at Merion, Pa., for Henry C. Thompson, Esq. It will be three stories high, 45x30 feet, and be built of stone. It will have porch on front, heated by hot water. Bids due February 23d. The following builders are bidding: Geo. W. Deaves, F. H. Mahan, J. S. Rodgers & Co., R. C. Ballinger & Co., M. W. Young, Wm. R. Dougherty, Adolph H. Prentzel.

Savery, Schetz & Savery, architects. Stephen Girard Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for improvements to the Windsor Hotel, at 1229 Filbert street. Bids due February 16th. The following builders are bidding: Roydhouse, Arcey & Co., John N. Gill & Co., L. Walter Thompson and Metzger & Wells.

Henry D. Dagit, architect, 435 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a power house and laundry to be built at Lawrenceville, N. J., for the Catholic Home for Aged, Morris Hall. It will be two stories high, of brick and will contain all modern improvements. J. S. Rodgers & Co., Stanwick, N. J., and Jos Trierer, of Trenton, N. J., are bidding.

Broockie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street, have completed plans and invited estimates for a stable, to be built at Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, for John A. Harris, Jr., Esq. It will be of stone and frame and will have the usual stable appointments. Bids due February 16th. The following are bidding: W. J. Gruhler, Thos. M. Seeds, Jr., W. R. Dougherty, G. Patterson and George S. Roth & Son.

Adin Benedict Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut street, has completed revised plans and specifications and invited estimates from Smith Hardican Co., F. E. Wallace and E. B. Weaver, of Abington, Pa., for the new residence of Charles Henry Jones, Esq., to be built at Rydal, Pa. It will be three stories high, 37x26 feet, and will have a wing 10x20 feet. It will be constructed of stone and pebble dashed and will be Colonial in design. Bids due February 17.

Stearns & Castor, architects and engineers, Stephen Girard Building, have been commissioned, it is reported, to prepare plans and specifications for a handsome new church, to be built at the southwest corner of Seventeenth and York streets, for the congregation of the West York Street Methodist Episcopal Church. The lot measures 130x65 feet. The new church is to be two stories high. At a recent interview with their representative he would not affirm or deny this report.

Savery, Schetz & Savery, architects, Stephen Girard Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for two houses to be built at Mt. Airy for E. Wheeler Jenkins, Esq. They measure 16x18 and 23x45 feet, and will be two and a half stories high and built of brick and frame, with all modern improvements. Bids due February 23. The following are bidding: George Whittener, George Sorber, H. H. Hudson and W. S. Kohl.

Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects. South Penn Square, are working on plans and specifications for three new residences to be built at Berwyn, Pa., for Mr. S. Lawrence Bodine. They will be three stories high and built of stone. They will have porch on the front and all modern conveniences and appointments. Bids have been filed with the above firm for a new house for the same person at same place, by Smith, Hardican, Wm. Russell, Jos. Reed and Frank Mahan. It will also be three stories high, of stone.

Amos W. Barnes, architect and engineer, 901 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets, for A. J. and L. J. Bamberger. The addition will be five stories high and be built of brick and contain all modern and up-to-date improvements. Bids were due February 14th. The following were bidding: Warner & Stinson, The Charles McCaul Co., Doyle & Doak, Fred Havens & Company, John R. Wiggins & Co., P. J. McDevitt, Geo. L. Sipps and Geo. A. Glenn & Co.

Lawrence Visscher Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions to the residence of Dr. Alfred C. Barnes, on Union avenue. Merion, Pa. The plans provide for an addition to be two stories high, 60x41 feet, and be built of brick and general interior remodeling. Bids due, February 18th. The following builders are bidding: Wm. Steele & Sons, R. C. Ballinger & Co., Stacy Reeves & Sons, George F. Payne & Co., F. J. McDevitt, McClintock & Weaver, M. W. Young and J. D. Lingle.

Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have been commissioned to prepare plans and specifications for the memorial chapel to Father Isaac Jogues, to be built at Arriesville, N. Y. The chapel will be unique in several ways, as it will be practically three churches in one with three altars and a sacristy under a large dome. One unique feature of the altar will be the continuous chancel rail forming a large square which will give the communicants free access around the three altars. The architecture of the building will be in the Spanish style. The enrichment of the edifice will be in the nature of marble mosaics. The building will be concrete throughout, masonry colored white and the roof of red Spanish tiles. The church will be built on the Mohawk River and a place of eminence.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

George F. Brinton & Co., builders, 412 Betz Building, have completed plans and specifications for 36 residences, to be built at Sixtieth and Osage avenue. They will be two stories high, 16x58 feet and will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements.

Seamless Rolled Steel Pipe Company, Mr. L. C. Kent, engineer, 909 Real Estate Building, is now ready for sub-bids for a new building, to be built at the foot of Edward street, Chester, Pa. It will be two stories high and be built of brick and stone and contain all modern improvements.

George Campbell, builder, 942 Real Estate Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for 20 residences to be built at Roxborough, Phila. They will be two stories high and built of brick and stone, with porch fronts. The interior will be in hardwood finish and contain all modern improvements.

A. Whitehead, builder, 1624 Latimer street, has posted plans and specifications for the new residence of Rev. J. H. Drilles, at Princeton, N. J., and invited estimates from sub-contractors. It will be three stories high, 35x45 feet and be built of stone. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will contain all modern improvements. Plans and specifications by E. E. and F. S. Stone, architects, of New York.

Frederick A. Havens & Co., builders, Perry Building, have been awarded the contract for the erection of the three-story apartment house, to be known as The Cresheim Arms, on Allen Lane, Mt. Airy, for Laura G. Watson. It will measure 81x41 feet, and the estimated cost is $26,000. It will be modern and up-to-date in its appointments and have every convenience. The plans and specifications have been prepared by George T. Pearson, architect, 427 Walnut street.

A BIG PLANT WITH IMMENSE RE- SOURCES AND WITH BUT LITTLE SHOUTING.

The Horn Brannen Manufacturing Company's plant, manufacturers of gas and electric fixtures, 427-29-31-33 North Broad street, is very busy preparing for what is predicted to be the heaviest demand for goods in its line that has been realized for many years.

The plant of this concern can now justly be considered the largest of its kind in the city and, indeed, its resources, involving its factory, store-room, counting room, shipping department, etc., are features of convenience, order and facilities which emphasizes more fully than anything we can say, the masterly managerial capacity of its executive heads.

This company's uninterrupted business, representing a period of over a quarter of a century, now extends to every State in the Union, besides a large yearly export of goods made under special orders.

This establishment as a whole is a local enterprise of which Philadelphians can regard with pride, for, like the mighty oak, it was once a mere sapling right here among us.

BUILDING and REAL ESTATE NOTES

Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company has plans posted for a power house to be built at Willow Grove, Pa. It will be one-story high, 45x60 feet and will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements.

George W. Young, builder and owner, 2316 South Broad street, has started work on the operation of 133 residences, to be built at Fifteenth and Shunk streets. They will be two stories high and built of brick and contain all modern improvements and conveniences.

Wm. T. Trimble Sons Co., builders, of Allegheny, Pa., have been awarded the contract for the Y. M. C. A. building, to be built at McKees Rocks, Pa., at a cost of $75,000. It will be three stories high, and will be built of stone. Plans and specifications by Seymour & Paul Davis, 907 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

Armstrong & Latta, builders, Land Title Building, have started work on the new laundry building, to cost $18,000, for the Penn Laundry Company, to be built at 319 North Thirty-second street. It will be two stories high, 53x126 feet and be built of brick and have every convenience and up-to-date laundry convenience.

Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., Lynch Bros., builders, have plans posted for First Methodist Church at Altoona, Pa. It will be of stone and will have the usual church furnishings. Bids due, February 27th. The plans and specifications by Brown, Thompson & Carroll, architects, of that town and the time has been extended.

John McShain, builder, 631 North Seventh street, has been awarded the contract to build the new parochial school at Ninth, above Christian streets, at a cost of $51,000. It will be three stories high, 160x60 feet and will be built of brick and contain all up-to-date school-house appointments. The plans and specifications by E. F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street.

P. J. Hurley, builder, 1216 Chancellor street, has submitted bid for a barn, to be erected at Bryn Mawr, Pa., for Seldon Twitchell, Esq. It will be two stories high and will be built of stone and will have every modern and up-to-date sanitary appointment. The plans and specifications are by Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building, Camden, N. J.

John W. Emery, builder, 1524 Sansom street, has been awarded the contract to build the factory and store at Twelfth and Race streets, for L. Harrison. It will be six stories and basement high and will measure 12x40 feet and will be built of brick and slow-burnin' construction and have tower fire-escape, etc. Plans and specifications by Herman Miller, architect, Crozer Building.

J. P. Thompson, builder, 1432 South Penn Square Building, has been awarded the contract to make alterations and improvements to the property at 114 South Fifteenth street for new quarters for the Princeton Club of Philadelphia, according to the plans and specifications of W. Woodburn Potter, architect, 1012 Walnut street. Work will proceed at once and be finished as quickly as possible.

Doyle & Doak, builders, 1509 Sansom street, have plans posted for the Ohio Building of the American University, to be built at Washington, D. C. It will be two stories high with basement, 138x138 feet, a perfectly square building. It will be constructed of stone and will contain auditorium with a gallery, lecture rooms, library and four offices. The plans are by Henry Ives Cobb, architect.

F. E. Wallace, builder, Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, has been invited by the owner, Ernest Schwahn, of 13 Wistar street, Germantown, Philadelphia, to submit bid to him for the alterations to the store property of A. J. and S. J. Bamberger, at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets, according to the plans of Amos W.

Barnes, architect and engineer, 901 Walnut street. Bids due in Mr. Wallace's office at 12 o'clock, February 17th.

D. F. O'Connell, builder and owner, 542 Land Title Building, is now ready for sub-bids for nine residences and four stores, to be built at Sixty-third and Callowhill streets. They will be two-stories high and built of brick. The interior will be in hardwood finish and they will have every convenience and appointment. These houses will cost $3,000 each and the stores will cost $4,500 each.

James Bartleson, builder, Ambler, Pa., has been awarded the contract to build the house and stable for Harland J. Maynard, Esq., at Melrose, Pa. The house will be two and a half stories high, 60x70 feet, and will be built of stone, with porch front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will contain all conveniences and appointments. The stable will also be constructed of stone and will be one story and loft high and have the usual stable appointments. The plans and specifications are by Adin B. Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut street.

C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street, has awarded the contract of $21,000 for the erection of four frame houses to be erected on the east side of Conshohocken avenue, at Cynwyd Station, Montgomery county, Pa., to Builder D. A. Fretz, of Cynwyd. The houses are 35x47 feet, constructed of shingle, containing 13 rooms, heated with steam heat, tiled bath room, hard wood floors and interior finish, hedges, walks, gas fixtures, papering not included in contract. This operation is but the nucleus of the opening of a 112-acre tract for development. Streets will shortly be cut through a portion of the tract to open the high undeveloped ground to the north of Cynwyd Station.

Thomas Reilly, builder, 1620 Thompson street, has submitted the lowest bid for the erection of the new high school at Broadway and North street, Baltimore, Md. His bid was $205,000. At a recent interview with one of his representatives he informed us that this amount exceeded the appropriation, but that the money would be procured through the city Councils to make up the difference and they would probably be awarded the contract. The bids submitted by the other builders from this city were as follows: Cramp Co., $313,950; The Chas. McCaul Co., $319,804; Henderson & Co., Limited, $332,770; William Steele & Sons, $339,697; The Wells Bros. Co., $357,913. The school will be three stories and basement high and will be built of brick, granite and terra-cotta and will measure 189x200 feet. In the basement will be the gymnasium, recreation and toilet rooms, with classrooms, principal's and assembly rooms on the second and third floors. It is estimated that this proposed new school will be one of the finest in that city. The plans and specifications are by Simonson & Pietsch, architects, of Baltimore, Md.

FOR Plastering Walls and Ceilings J. B. KING & CO., No 1 Broadway, New York

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Field & Medary, architects, 1414 South Penn Square, are working on plans and specifications and will invite estimates soon for alterations and additions to the residence and new stable of George H. Lorimer, at Jenkintown, Pa.

There will be a new theatre erected in South Camden, N. J., at Broadway, Walnut street and Newton avenue, to be known as the Broadway Theatre. It will be constructed of granite and pompeian brick, and is estimated to cost $50,000. It will be most modern in all its appointments.

F. Fox, architect, 4223 Pechin street, Roxborough, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for twin residences to be built at Green Lane and Ridge avenue, Roxborough, for Mrs. P. Bechtel. They will be three stories high, of brick, 10x50 feet, and contain all modern improvements.

Kurt W. Peuckert, architect, 310 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a fireproof addition to Rieger & Gretz, Germantown avenue and Oxford street. It will be two stories high, 42x82 feet. Bids due February 28th. John N. Gill & Co., builders, Heed Building.

Amos W. Barnes, architect and engineer, Ninth and Walnut streets, has completed plans and specifications for a new residence to be built at Lyceum avenue east of Pechin street, Roxborough, for Wm. Brecht. It will be three stories high, brick and stone and have all modern improvements. He will invite bids soon.

Ralph E. White & Co., architects and engineers, have completed revised plans and specifications and invited estimates from Henderson & Co., Ltd., and John R. Wiggins & Co., for the extensive improvements and alterations to 1412 and 1414 Chestnut street, for restaurant and cafe purposes for Clarence B. Kusler.

Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, will have the plans and specifications ready some time after March 1st for bids for the new German Theatre, to be built at Franklin and Girard avenue (details previously noted). Also for the new four-story hotel to be built at the southwest corner of the same street.

Chas. E. Oelschlager, architect, Harrison Building, has been commissioned by Christopher J. Schelling, Esq., to prepare plans for a three-story stone and shingle residence at Mamaronck, New York. The size of the house will be 34x120 feet, and will contain all the most modern appointments. A stable, greenhouse and formal garden will be included in the layout.

Seymour Davis and Paul A. Davis, 3d, architects, 907 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, who is taking bids, for a store building to be erected at Easton, Pa., for E. J. Richards, owner. It will be three stories high, of brick, 22x30 feet, and have all up-to-date improvements. Geo. W. Beard & Co., Inc., of Reading, Pa., are estimating.

The regular meeting of the T-Square Club will be held at 1204 Lyndal Alley, on Wednesday evening, March 1st. Mr. John G. Brown will speak on the "Manufacture of Portland Cement." There will also be an exhibition of drawings of T-Square Club Atelier recently received from judgment of the Beaux Art Society. Special tickets of admission to this exhibition will be printed and can be secured from W. S. Vaux, secretary of the club, Stephen Girard Building.

Watson & Huckel, architects, 1211 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications for the new free library to be built at Overington street and Frankford avenue, for the city, at a cost of $50,000. It will be two stories and basement high, of stone, with every appointment and convenience. Bids due March 6th. The following are bidding: Henderson & Co., Wm. R. Dougherty, Geo. F. Payne & Co., H. B. Shoemaker & Co., Wm. Roberts, Appleton & Burrell, Metzger & Wells, F. S. Riggs and Chas. Gilpin.

Plans and specifications have been completed and bids will be advertised for on February 24 for the proposed new Southern Manual Training School, which is to be built at Broad and Jackson streets. Bids will be opened by the Property committee of the Board of Education on March 7th. It will be three stories and basement high, and will be built of brick and stone, with every possible convenience and up-to-date appointment of a building of its kind. The contract will be awarded as soon as possible and work proceed at once.

George I. Lovatt, architect, 420 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications for remodeling the interior of St. Teresa's Roman Catholic Church at Broad and Catharine streets. Plans provide new altars, pews, mosaic floors, etc. Bids due March 1st. The following are bidding: S. R. Riley, Wm. J. McShane and Wm. Christy & Son, J. F. White-man, the American Art Marble Company and Thomas Kene, for the plastering, and Saml. H. French, Belk Bros., and the Italian Marble and Mosaic Company for the mosaic and marble work. He has also been commissioned by Rev. Francis L. Carr, rector of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, of Norristown, to prepare plans for the new edifice to be built at Chestnut and De Kalb streets, that place.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

King, Killough & Co., builders, Land Title Building, have plans posted for a Colonial residence to be built at 248 East Johnson street, Germantown, Phila., for M. C. Indahl. It will be stone, three stories high, 31x54 feet, and will have a porch on the front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have all conveniences.

John Gallagher, builder, 2440 South Broad street, will erect an operation of 181 houses at Tenth and Ritner streets. They will be two stories high and be built of brick. All modern improvements. He is now ready for sub-bids.

Geo. Clark, builder, 1324 South Forty-eighth street, will erect an operation of 75 houses at Fifty-third street and Chester avenue. They will be two stories high, porch fronts and will be built of brick and have all modern conveniences and appointments. He is now ready for sub-bids.

H. H. Moore, builder, at Spring Lake, N. J., has been awarded the contract to build the stable and gateway at that place for Samuel Heilner, Esq. The stable will be brick and stone, and the gateway stone. The work is estimated to cost $10,000. Plans and specifications by Newman & Harris, architects, Real Estate Building.

Harry Brockelhurst, Jos. Bird, McLaughlin & McNamara, John W. Emery, Lynch Bros., John R. Wiggins & Co., P. J. Hurley and Samuel B. McDowell, builders, have submitted bids for the office building of the North Penn Iron Company, at Third and Venango streets. It will be two stories high, 43x64 feet, and built of brick. Plans by H. J. Bur, architect, 5432 Morris street.

The congregation of the Seventh Day Adventists will erect a new church at a cost of $7,000 at Fifty-first and Locust streets, from the plans of Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street. It will be two stories high, of stone and brick and will measure 75x37 feet. The church will be built under the supervision of J. Peterson, superintendent, 1535 North Fifty-ninth street, who is now ready for sub-bids.

John McShain, builder, 631 North Seventeenth street, has been awarded the contract to build the handsome new parish house for St. Gregory Roman Catholic congregation at Fifty-second and Lancaster avenue, and will add to the new church for the same congregation now in the course of erection. It will be three stories high, 25x100 feet, and will be built of stone (details previously noted). Plans and specifications by Rowland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street.

Work will soon be started on the addition to the Bellevue-Stratford, at Broad and Walnut streets, which will make it the largest hotel in the world. The addition will be in keeping with the main building and will add 1,000 more sleeping rooms. A roof garden will extend over the entire hotel and will be divided into four parts by the light well. In the rear of the garden there will be a stage suitable for entertainments. Five passenger elevators will provide access to the garden.

HENRY E. SEALEY & CO.'S NEW GLASS SUPPLY HOUSE

The large, new building at 230 and 232 North Twelfth street, has been leased by Mr. Henry E. Sealey, who for many years was known throughout the building construction trades through his identification with the old glass supply firm of Heroy & Co., of this city.

At the absorption of Heroy & Co. by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, Mr. Sealey's experience and popularity were considered as among the most valuable assets of the former firm, and he was made the local manager, which position he has retained up to his resignation—for the purpose of entering business for himself—which is to become effective on March 1st next.

The new concern commences business under the most favorable auspices as to experience, capital, energy, etc., as essential and invaluable adjuncts to business enterprise.

The stock will, of course, include all that a large glass supply house should carry for the convenience of its customers, and will, as a matter of course, include looking-glass, leaded and decorative glass, and in fact everything in the line required by builders and painters and paint supply houses.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell, or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

George E. Savage, architect, 401 Chestnut street, is working on plans and specifications for a new church, to be built at Berling, Md., for the First Presbyterian congregation of that town. It will be one story high and built of stone and will measure 85x160 feet and contain all up-to-date church furnishings.

Albert Kelsey, architect, 931 Chestnut st., is working on plans and specifications for new house, to be built at Greene and School Lane, Germantown, for Dr. George A. Caeron. It will be three stories high and built of stone, 50x80 feet, and will contain all modern and up-to-date improvements. Bids due in about ten days' time.

H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, has prepared plans and specifications for a new residence, to be built at Rosemont, Pa., for Charles Sim, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of frame and will have a porch on the front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have every convenience and appointment. Geo. Croll, of Rosemont, Pa., is bidding.

Newman & Harris, architects, Land Title Building, are working on plans and specifications for alterations and remodeling a residence at Beverly, N. J. Plans provide for new porches, additional bath room, new hot air heating plant and general interior remodeling. Working plans will be ready for bids in about one week's time.

Frank H. Keisker, architect, Quinn Sharpless Bldg., is working on plans for remodeling of a residence into two flats and one store, at East Downingtown, Pa. The building measures 22x67 feet. A new steam heating plant will be installed, open plumbing work and general interior remodeling, making it one of the most up-to-date flats in the country. It will be some time before bids are ready.

J. Horace Cook, architect of the Board of Education, has sent plans and specifications out for bids for the new Southern Manual Training School, at Broad and Jackson streets. It is to be three stories high, 246x172 feet and will be built of stone with every convenience and appointment. Bids due March 7th. ## The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Serious Business

is the gathering of builders' news for a large class of hard-headed patrons who will generously thump you in the neck if once wrong, but who seldom join in a hallelujah of praise if right a million times.

All of this does not bother us even a trifle, for we put in such conscientious work in our gleaming of pointers, which lead to profitable contracts for work and material, that it is rare indeed that our standard of efficiency is ever lowered a trifle.

In the past 20 years we have reported over $540,000,000 worth of new buildings erected in this city, and our necks are not even sore; hence it follows that mistakes are few in our columns.

All this for less than 10 cents per week.

WHAT DOES "COLONIAL" MEAN?

If there is one word above another that is abused in architecture and building terms, it is the word "colonial." There is no end to the kind of structures to which it is applied. When the builder of an apartment house wishes to make it attractive he says that it is of the "colonial" type, while perhaps the keen observer will utterly fail to discern anything colonial about it.

When the cottage is erected on the lake front the owner put a few fluted columns on the front and hangs out a sign "The Colonial." Perchance a residence may be planned on a thickly populated street fronting a few inches from the sidewalk line, the owner paints it white with green shutters and his wife at once issues stationery of the old colonial type. A few ancient bedsteads and a grandfather's clock go to prove the right to this title, and yet, when one stops to think what colonial really means it is difficult to form a correct impression. In this country it is generally regarded as meaning a type of construction patterned after the ideas brought by the colonists on the Mayflower and embodied in early plantation homes in Eastern and Southern states. Even those were of many shapes and designs, so that one is still at sea when he goes back to the earliest ties. There may be some abuse of the word "classic," when applied to architecture, and there may also be some abuses of the word "Gothic," but of all the ridiculous uses of architectural terms, that of the word "colonial" takes the lead. Anything that has columns in front of it and a hall down the middle comes within the commonly accepted meaning of the term.—Exchange.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

In a few days the Director of the Poor of Delaware County will advertise for bids for the handsome new county asylum to be built at Lima, Pa., according to plans and specifications of Harry Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, this city. It is intended by the directors to put the new buildings on the plot of ground just opposite the present county home. This is one of the most commanding positions in the country.

Frank H. Keisker, architect, Quinn-Sharpless Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for remodeling the residence into two flats, (details previously noted,) for J. Henry Reed, of Downingtown, Pa. The following have been invited to bid: G. T. Denby, Edge C. Lewis, George C. Fisher and William Moore, of East Downingtown, Pa.; Jesse McCarns, of Downingtown, Pa., and H. Marion Zane and Mr. Wylie, of this city. Bids due March 9th.

The Israel W. Durham Club will erect a magnificent club house on South Broad street. A special committee is at work and in a day or two the deed to a piece of ground on South Broad street, 40 feet front and 165 feet in depth, will be secured. The exact location is withheld for the present. This handsome structure, which is to be roomy, is to have every club convenience, including a large swimming pool, bowling alley, billiard rooms, parlors, club rooms. There will be a finely appointed cafe and it will have every up-to-date convenience and appointment.

Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, has sent out plans and specifications for the new German theatre, hotel and alterations to existing buildings, Franklin street and Girard avenue. Lot 192x114, practically all covered; theatre and Girard avenue entrance fire-proof, also office building. Hotel, store and manufacturing building wood construction. Builders' bids due Tuesday, March 14th, at 1 P. M. Covers all work except heating and power plant, sprinkler systems, electrical work, elevators, scene and decorative painting, seating and light fixtures. Separate estimates for these branches will be asked on Thursday, due at the same time. For general description see previous notes. The following builders have been invited to bid: Cramp & Co., Doyle & Doak, Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., George F. Payne & Co., John R. Wiggins & Co., and B. Ketchum & Sons.

Architect Allen Evans, of the firm of Furness, Evans & Co., of 401 Chestnut street, and McKim, Mead & White, of New York City, have been commissioned by the Girard Trust Company to prepare plans and specifications for the handsome new banking house to be erected at the northwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets. Proposed structure will be classic in design and will cover area now occupied by the structures from the northwest corner of Broad and Chestnut, north on Broad street to the West End Building; west on Chestnut to 1411 Chestnut street and will extend L-shaped to South Penn Square, with a frontage at 1406 to 1410 South Penn Square. The building will have a frontage of about 142 feet on the Broad street side, 137 feet on Chestnut street and 58 feet. As stated in these columns, the work on this structure will not start until the leases on the present buildings expire, which will be in the latter part of this year. We will be able to give more details later.

Messrs. Baldwin & Pennington, architects, Baltimore, Md., have received bids for the War Department, for the largest and most monumental mess hall and dormitory building in this country, to be erected at the United States Soldiers' Home, in Washington, D. C., their plans having been accepted in competition from some of the leading architects throughout the country. The plans show a modern fire-proof building four stories and basement high, with attic measuring 260x200 feet, which will cover an entire city block. The building will be heated by steam, wired and lighted by electricity, with every modern appointment and convenience. Bids have been submitted to the above architects by the following builders: Doyle & Doak, Thompson & Starrett Co., Ambrose B. Stannard, S. J. Prescott & Co., Wm. P. Lipscomb & Co., Richardson & Burgess, James L. Parsons, Cramp Co., Noel Construction Co., Wells Bros. Co., Henry Smith & Son, Wm. R. Chapman & Sons, The Chas. McCaul Co., Levering & Carrigues Co., J. P. Carlin Construction Co. and William E. Spier.

Architects Shollar & Hersch, Altoona, Pa., have prepared plans for a handsome club house, to be erected at Barre Station, 24 miles east of Altoona, for the Spruce Creek Rod and Gun Club of Altoona. Mr. W. C. Westfall, Mr. Frank Seely, Mr. J. P. McWilliams, of Altoona, are members of the club. The structure will be situated along the Juniata River and will be 38x60 feet in dimensions, and the material will be faced stone with cap siding, and shingle roof. It will contain a parlor, dining room, living room, kitchen, billiard room, seven bedrooms, servants' quarters, etc. Fine interior finish, open plumbing, modern conveniences. A wide veranda will surround three sides of the structure.—The same architects have prepared plans for a dwelling, to be erected at Fourteenth avenue near Seventeenth street, for Mr. R. W. McEldoway. It will be two and a half stories high, of frame, fine interior finish, and will contain eight rooms and a bath room, hot water heating, open plumbing, slate roof, all modern conveniences.—Also, plans by same architects for an apartment house, to be erected on Ninth street between Seventh and Eighth avenues, Altoona, for Mr. A. Blumenthal, of New York. The structure will be three stories high, of brick, in size 30x60 feet, and it will be fitted up to accommodate six families. Each suite will contain six rooms and a bath. Steam heat, electric lights, sanitary plumbing and the usual modern conveniences will be provided. Work will begin on this structure in a short time.

A magnificent tract of ground facing and overlooking Fairmount Park, from Parkside avenue and embracing Wynnefield and Edgley avenues, Diamond and Forty-ninth streets, at Wynnefield Station, Thirty-fourth ward, Philadelphia, has been purchased by a syndicate headed by Mr. H. W. Stevenson, who will lay out the entire tract in 100x150 foot lots, and has retained Architect C. E. Schermerhorn to develop the tract in detail. Mr. Schermerhorn has prepared the plans for five stone houses, to be erected on the east side of Wynnefield avenue, east and west of Diamond street. The plans call for 16-room stone houses of varied designs, with tiled roofs, cut stone trimmings, etc. The interiors will be finished in oak, birch and chestnut, the second floors will be finished in enameled white paint with single panel mahogany doors, glass knobs and brass hardware. The reception halls and dining rooms will be wainscoted and have ceilings beamed. Stone brick and tile fire-places are provided for in the halls and library. The stairs are massive in outline and form a distinct feature of the design. The kitchen and bath rooms have tiled sides, interlocking rubber tile floors and are fitted with porcelain fixtures. The houses are to be heated with hot water and a return circulation of hot water to the fixtures is embodied. Inside venetian blinds will be used to match the various ones finished. The entire tract will be rapidly developed with streets, sewers, etc., and the construction of fifty houses during the coming year, which will entail the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars. Owner Stevenson is now taking bids from the various subcontractors, for excavating, stone, brick, iron and cement work; also, carpenter, tile, plumbing and heating work.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

J. R. Ogden, architect, Atlantic City, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, for four two-story brick cottages, to be built at Atlantic City, N. J., for Mr. Charles Pryor, Bartlett Building, and he is now ready for sub-bids. Work on these cottages will start at once and it is expected that they will be finished before the fall of this year.

George W. Bower & Son, architects, of Morristown, N. J., are preparing plans for a store and flat building for Mr. William Smart, to be built of brick, and will be two stories high and will contain two stores and two flats and will be erected on Elm street near the station. They will be heated by steam, wired for electricity and will have every convenience and appointment and will cost about $7,000.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

C. W. Denny, builder, 1237 Arch street, will build the new cutting room, shipping room and a pump-house, for the plant of G. and H. Barnett Company, at Frankford avenue and Richmond street. The work will cost $17,000.

Ground has been broken for the new Broadway Theatre, to be built at Broadway, Walnut street and Newton avenue, Camden, N. J. It is to be constructed of granite and pompeian brick and will cost $50,000. The plans and specifications are by S. J. Brouse, architect, of Trenton, N. J. The owner of the above theatre is the Taylor Amusement Company.

Smith & Hardican, builders, Perry Building, have been awarded the contract to build the new stable at Devon, Pa., for Mr. Henry Justice, Esq. It will be one-story and loft high, be built of stone and will measure 50x40 feet, with two wings on side. It is estimated to cost $6,000. Plans by Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building.

Edward Fay, builder, 2666 Richmond street, has been awarded the contract to build the amusement hall at Third and Fitzwater street, for S. Borowsky and Abramowitz Brothers, of 736 South Third street. It will be two stories high with gallery, and will measure 53x25 feet. Plans and specifications by Charles Bolton and John D. Dull, associated architects.

John Welsh, builder, 551 Spruce street, Camden, N. J., has been awarded the contract to build the addition to Wood-Lynne Park, in the suburbs of Camden, and build additions to the car barn at that city for the Public Service Corporation, of New Jersey, according to the plans and specifications of Ralph E. White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building.

Thomas Reilly, builder, 1628 Thompson street, has been awarded the contract to build the new parish house for the Trinity Church, to be erected at Pittsburg, Pa. The plans and specifications are by Carpenter & Crocker, architects, of that city. The building will cost $75,000 and will be built of Bedford, Indiana, limestone and have all modern improvements. Work will start at once.

Philip Haibach, builder, Twenty-sixth and Thompson streets, has been awarded the beer storage house for Reiger & Gretz, Lawrence and Oxford streets. It will be four stories high and will be built of brick and steel and will be fire-proof and contain all modern improvements. Plans and specifications by K. W. Peuckert, architect, 310 Chestnut street. Work will proceed at once.

A handsome new public school is to be built in the Fifteenth section. The A. D. Bache School, at Twenty-second and Brown streets, is to be torn down and on the site the new structure will be erected at a cost of $124,000. The plans and specifications are in the course of preparation by J. Horace Cook, architect of Board of Education, and it is expected that bids will be invited soon.

The Mayor has signed the ordinance to open Twenty-fifth street through the Odd Fellows' Cemetery, north of Diamond Street. There is an ordinance introduced in Councils to appropriate $65,000 for a bridge on the line of Twenty-fifth street, between Diamond street and Susquehanna avenue across the Pennsylvania Railroad. It is intended to cut streets through the cemetery and build new houses in the near future.

H. Marion Zane, builder, 1318 Chestnut street, has plans posted for a residence and stable, to be built at Westmont, Cambria County, Pa., for T. E. Murphy, Esq. The residence will be two and a half stories high, built of stone and half timber and will have a porch on front. The interior will be in hardwood finish, and stable will be one-story and loft high and will have every sanitary stable appointments. Plans and specifications by H. L. Reinhold, Jr., 1004 Chestnut street.

P. J. McDewitt, builder, 1918 Cherry street, has been awarded the contract for alterations and additions to the residence of Mr. Alfred C. Burns, on Union avenue, Mcrion, Pa. The plans provide for an addition to be two stories high, 60x41 feet and to be built of brick, with general interior remodeling. Work is estimated to cost about $20,000. Plans and specifications by Lawrence Visscher Boyd, architect, Harrison Building.

Architectural Wood Working Company, 1415 Wood street, have been awarded the contract for the remodeling of the building at 1412-14 Chestnut street, for Clarence B. Kugler, into a cafe, restaurant and banquet hall, details of this work previously noted in these columns. The estimated cost of the work is $50,000. Plans and specifications by Ralph E. White & Co., architects and engineers, Pennsylvania Building. Work will start at once.

Samuel Harting, Fred Elvidge, Alex. Simpson, William Patterson, builders, have submitted bids to Architect Albert Kelsey of 931 Chestnut street, for the handsome Colonial residence to be built at Green and School House Lane, Germantown, Philadelphia, for Dr. Geo. A. Cameron. It will be two and a half stories high, 50x80 feet, and will be built of stone. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have all modern improvements. It is expected that the contract will be awarded in a few days.

Samuel R. Harris & Son, builders, at Ardmore, Pa., have been awarded the contract to build the new residence at Rosemont, Pa., for Richard Kilday, Eng. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of brick, 38x148 feet, and will have a porch on the front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will contain all modern improvements. It will cost about $6,000. Plans and specifications by Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street.

H. C. Dahl, builder, 241 South Sixth street, has plans posted for a new residence, to be built at Hutchinson and Christian streets. It will be three stories high, 14x52 feet and will be constructed of brick and contain all modern improvements. The plans and specifications are by J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 719 Walnut street. He has also been awarded the contract to build the new warehouse at 224-226 Dock street, for J. P. Wilson. It will be four stories high, 60x60 feet, and will be built of brick and slow-burning construction and will cost $9,000.

The Property Committee of the Board of Education met on March 7, and opened bids for the new Southern Manual Training school, at Broad and Jackson streets. They were as follows: Edward F. Fonder & Co., $370,000; Wm. Christy & Sons, $418,000; Cramp & Co., $361,037; Metzger & Wells, $376,765; Henderson & Co., $371,087; John R. Wiggins & Co., $370,000; David Peoples, $372,801; Thomas Reilly, $398,000. There is available at present $390,000. This is $1,037 less than the lowest bid, which is that of Cramp & Co. A motion was made to award the contract to Cramp & Co and that Council be asked to appropriate the balance necessary to complete the school.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

W. L. Plack, architect and engineer, 1208 Chestnut st., has completed plans and specifications and advertised for bids for the addition and alterations to the court house, to be built at Hollidaysburg, Pa., (details previously noted.) Bids due April 3d.

At Slatington, Pa., Architect and Civil Engineer G. T. Oplinger is preparing plans for a brick dwelling and office building, to be erected for Dr. J. S. Mack, of Slatington. The structure will have fine hardwood interior finish and will be provided with modern conveniences.

The firm of Morris & Vaux, architects, desire to announce that their partnership is by mutual consent, dissolved, and that they will continue the practice of architecture under their respective names. George Spencer Morris will be located in the old office, 515 Stephen Girard building, and William S. Vaux, Jr., in Room 807 Bailey Building.

Chas. M. Wells, architect, Langstroth Building, Cheltenham and Main streets, Germantown, Philadelphia, is working on plans and specifications for a new Methodist Church, to be built at Twenty-sixth and York streets. It will be one-story, basement and gallery high, and will be built of stone and have all the usual church furnishings. It is expected that estimates will be invited in about three weeks' time.

Charles E. Oelschlager, architect, Harrison building, has finished plans and specifications for a new rectory to be built at Glendolen, Pa., for the congregation of the Glendolen Presbyterian Church. It will be three stories high, 30x42 feet, and will be built of stone and shingle, with porch on three sides. It is to be heated by steam, wired for electricity, will contain 12 rooms and baths, with all modern improvements. It is estimated to cost $5000.

The T-Square Club will hold their annual spring smoker this evening, March 15th, at 8 o'clock, at their club house, 1204 Lyndal alley. The entertainment committee beg to announce among one of the features the reproduction of a product recently produced by the University of Pennsylvania architectural students, entitled "A Pair of Queens." Members may bring their friends in limited quantities. The committee in charge are Wm. Woodburn Potter, W. W. Sharpley and C. Wharton Churchman.

Ballinger and Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and sent same out for bids for a new parochial school to be built at Ashley, Luzerne county, Pa., for St. Leo's Roman Catholic congregation of that place. It will be two-stories high, 66x100 feet, and will be built of brick and stone. Bids due March 18th. The following have been invited to bid: P. J. Hurley, Wm. R. Dougherty, Wm. J. McShane, of this city, and E. J. Donohoe, of Ashley, Pa.

W. Woodburn Potter, architect, 1012 Walnut st., has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates, for alterations and additions to the building at 603-05 South Third street, for M. Rosenbaum. The plans provide for additions, new lime-stone front, plate glass bulk, iron, marble, interior alterations to suit the needs of office purposes, etc. Bids due March 21. The following are bidding: F. E. Wallace, J. P. Thompson, P. J. Hurley, H. B. Shoemaker & Co., and Philadelphia Construction Co.

Savery, Scheetz & Savery, architects, Addison Hutton, consulting architect, Stephen Girard building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the handsome new house of E. Wheeler Jenkins, Esq., to be built at 106 West Johnson street, Germantown. It will be three stories high, of stone and contain every convenience and appointment. Bids due March 17th. The following are bidding: J. S. Rogers Co., Stanwick, N. J., Thomas Little & Son, W. S. Kohl, H. Hudson and A. P. Simpson.

Brockie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street, have completed plans and invited estimates for the handsome new residence to be built at School Lane and Wisahickon avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia, for Francis Strawbridge, Esq. It will be three stories high, of stone, with porch front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will have every convenience. Bids due March 20th. The following are bidding: Stacy Reeves & Son, Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., Robert M. Peterson and Thomas Little & Son.

Albert E. Westover, architect, Keith Building, is working on plans and specifications for a new theatre for Mr. I. C. Mishler. It will be built on 12th avenue and 12th street, Altoona, Pa. It will have a frontage of 105 feet and a depth of 120 feet. It is to be one of the handsomest theatres in the State, and will have a seating capacity of 1880 persons and will have elaborate finish on the interior. Will have an up-to-date stage with all up-to-date appointments and there will be 15 dressing rooms and it will have 30 exits. Work will be started on this handsome theatre in the early summer.

W. W. Bretherick, architect, 905 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications for a new residence, to be built at Cheltenham avenue, Oak Lane, Philadelphia, for Mr. J. H. Wallace. It will be two and a half stories high, of stone and shingles and will have porch on front. The interior will be in hardwood finish and contain all modern improvements. He is also working on plans and specifications for six houses, to be built at Laurens avenue and Hansberry street, Germantown, Philadelphia. They will be three stories high, of brick, porch front and contain all modern improvements.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 320 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications for a handsome new apartment house to be built on the vacant lot situated on Fifteenth street, extending from southwest corner of Fifteenth and Wallace streets to the northwest corner of Mt. Vernon street. It will be five stories and basement high, and will be built of stone and brick and have every convenience and appointment, with elevator, steam heat, suite of rooms with bath attached and every convenience and appointment. Frank S. Riggs, builder, will have plans posted soon for estimates.

Amos W. Barnes, architect and engineer, Ninth and Walnut streets, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new residence, to be built at Lyceum avenue and Mitchell street, Roxborough, Philadelphia. It will be three stories high and will be built of stone and contain all modern improvements. Bids due March 20th. The following are bidding: William H. Eddleman, Edgar Clark, John W. Cuthbertson, John W. Fritzinger, W. R. Bickings, George L. Sipps, F. E. Wallace, George A. Glenn & Co., Fred A. Havens & Co., John R. Wiggins & Co.

PHYSICAL TESTS OF THE DIAMOND STONE-BRICK (Sand Lime.)

The Charles Warner Company, 810 Land Title Building, this city, and Wilmington, Del., agents for the Diamond Stone-Brick, have recently closed contracts for the delivery of over 5,000,000 of the Sand Lime Brick in Philadelphia during the coming season, and if the present demand continues, the full year's output of the Wilmington plant, amounting to 18,000,000 bricks, will shortly be contracted for. We give below physical tests recently made by the Henry S. Spackman Engineering Company, of a number of the natural colored sand lime bricks. These samples were taken from a pile of about 300,000, and were frozen when collected.

CRUSHING TEST—Bricks laid flatwise as placed in the wall.

Three natural colored sand-lime brick.
No. 1.  $4'' \times 8'' = 20$  sq. in.; failed at 42,720 lbs. = 2,136 lbs. per sq. in.
No. 2.  $4'' \times 8'' = 20$  sq. in.; failed at 60,710 lbs. = 3,035 lbs. per sq. in.
No. 3.  $4'' \times 8'' = 20$  sq. in.; failed at 59,640 lbs. = 2,982 lbs. per sq. in.

Average . . . . . = 2,718 lbs. per sq. in.
FREEZING TEST—Bricks immersed forty-eight hours in distilled water, then frozen at a temperature of  $4^{\circ}$  F. for 16 hours; then immersed in water at  $70^{\circ}$  F. for eight hours, and this repeated ten times, giving ten freezings and thawings.

Natural colored sand-lime bricks.
Weight of brick before test, dried at  $212^{\circ}$  F., 13.89 lbs.
Weight of brick after test, dried at  $212^{\circ}$  F., 13.84 lbs.
.05 lbs.

Loss, due to freezing . . . . . = 4 1/2%
Note—The effect of freezing is only shown by a slight rounding of the edges.

CRUSHING TEST of bricks which were subjected to the freezing test after having been dried forty-eight hours at  $212^{\circ}$  F.

Three natural colored sand-lime bricks.
No. 11.  $8.25'' \times 4'' = 33$  sq. in.; failed at 101,240 lbs. = 3,087 lbs. per sq. in.
No. 12.  $8.25'' \times 4'' = 33$  sq. in.; failed at 97,550 lbs. = 2,955 lbs. per sq. in.
No. 13.  $8.25'' \times 4'' = 33$  sq. in.; failed at 100,560 lbs. = 3,047 lbs. per sq. in.

Average . . . . . = 3,023 lbs. per sq. in.

The Diamond Stone-Brick Company has developed a large variety of special colors and other pleasing effects in the way of spotted and rough bricks, and in this respect has surpassed any plant manufacturing sand lime brick in the United States to-day.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

The members of the Academy of Natural Science are said to be contemplating the erection of an addition to its building at Nineteenth and Race streets, at an estimated cost of $200,000.

Chas. J. Brooke, architect, 14 South Broad street, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, F. P. Thompson, 316 Real Estate Building, for an operation of houses to be built at Frankford avenue and Tioga street. They will be two- and three stories high and will be built of brick. The owner is now ready for sub-bids.

J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 721 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new theatre, to be built at 713-15 Christian street, for F. Giannini. Seventh and Femberton streets. It will be built of brick and contain all the up-to-date appointments, with modern stage scenery and all necessary fixings, curtain, etc.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

Negotiations are nearly completed for the building of an annex to the present Girls' Commercial High School, at Broad and Green streets, for which purpose $353,000 has been appropriated.

A piece of land adjoining the Webster School, at Frankford avenue and Ontario street, has been purchased by the Board of Education for $13,000 and an addition to the above school will be built.

R. Cavallo, of 315-17 Spruce street, Camden, N. J., will erect a residence and warehouse at the above address. It will be three-stories high, 41x60 feet, and will be built of brick and have the usual appointments.

H. M. Preston, owner, 1011 Chestnut street, will erect an operation of 14 residences and 4 stores on the east side of 52d street, north of DeLancey street. They will be two and three stories high and be built of brick with porch front and have all modern improvements.

M. E. Hauser, Glenside, Pa., builder, has plans posted for a double residence to be built at Jenkintown, Pa., for George Fleck of that place. It will be two-and-a-half stories high, 36x35 feet, and will be built of stone and frame, with porch on the front and all conveniences and appointments.

Stott Bros., builders, 2070 E. Cumberland street, will erect an operation of 13 residences to be at Allengrove and East Frankford avenue. They will be two-stories high, 16x72 feet. They will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements. They are now ready for sub-bids.

The College of Physicians has offered to pay the city $55,000 for the old Grant School at 17th and Pine streets, which is to be abandoned upon the completion of the new school for that section. This may not be for a year or more, but it is understood that the offer will be accepted by the School Board.

Adam Rose, of Sharon Hill, Delaware County, Pa., will erect four 10-room houses at that place, he having purchased the ground for that purpose. He is now ready for sub-bids for everything for these houses, which will be built under his supervision. The best time to see Mr. Rose is in the evening.

F. H. Mahon, builder, of Ardmore, Pa., has been awarded the contract to build the new residence for J. Ogden Hoffman, Esq., at Radnor Road and Ithan Road, Villa Nova, Pa. It will be stone and brick, three stories high, (details previously noted). Plans and specifications by Furness, Evans & Co., architects, 401 Chestnut street.

Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., builders, Bailey Building, have submitted bids to George E. Savage, architect, Provident Building, for the new church to be built at 7th and Kaighn avenue, Camden, N. J., for the 7th Baptist Congregation. It will be one-story and gallery high and will be built of stone and brick, and have the usual church furnishings.

John R. Wiggins & Co., Heed Building, have been awarded the contract to make alterations and additions to West Philadelphia Republican Club, at Forty-first and Chestnut street. A new back addition will be built and general interior remodeling will be made. It is estimated that this work will cost about $10,000. They are now ready for sub-bids.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., J. E. and A. L. Pennock and Thomas Reilly, builders, of this city, have plans posted for the Carnegie Technical School to be erected at Pittsburgh, Pa., at a cost of $1,000,000. It will be three-story and basement high, 500x400 feet, and will be built of stone. The plans and specifications by Palmer & Hornbostel, architects.

The Engineering News, office 220 Broadway, New York, offers two prizes, First, $150,000; Second, $75,000, for the best two papers on the manufacture of concrete blocks and their use in building construction. All articles on these subjects must be typewritten and received at the office of the Engineering News, May 31, 1905. All are invited to compete.

F. B. Davis, builder, 6 North 13th street, has been awarded the contract to build the additions and alterations to cost about $5200 to the Presbyterian Home for Aged Couples on Bala Road, near Belmont. The addition will be one-story high and basement. The plans and specifications by Wilson, Harris & Richards, architects and engineers, Drexel Building.

W. S. Kohl, J. W. Kohl, A. S. Tourison, Jacob Myers & Son, Wm. R. Dougherty and McClintock & Weaver, builders, have submitted bids to Lawrence V. Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, for the new residence of Oswald J. De Rousse, to be built at Germantown. It will be three-stories high, of frame and will have a porch on the front and contain all modern improvements.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Chidister will erect a three-story brick and stone business block, to cost $8,000. It will be well finished throughout and supplied with modern conveniences. No architect has been selected.—Captain L. Black will erect a two-story brick and frame dwelling, to cost $6,000. It will have fine interior finish, open plumbing, tiling and the usual modern conveniences. No architect has been engaged.—Mr. A. R. Campbell has under consideration the erection of a two-story frame and stone dwelling, to cost about $3,000. It will be well finished throughout and will be equipped with the usual modern conveniences.

At New York, plans have been filed for the erection of two six-story dwellings, at 984 Fifth avenue, for Mr. Isaac V. Brokaw. The estimated cost is $100,000. The plans have been prepared by Architect Charles Frederick Rose, 1 Madison avenue, New York.—The Evening Post, now occupying quarters at Broadway and Fulton street, will erect a thirteen-story building at Nos. 20, 22 and 24 Vesey street. The plans will be prepared by Architect Robert D. Kohn, 170 Fifth avenue. The details have not yet been settled.—The general contract for the erection of the new central police headquarters has been awarded to Gillespie, Walsh & Gillespie, 1133 Broadway. The structure will be situated on the block bounded by Grand, Centre, Broome and Centre Market Place. The estimated cost is $700,000. The plans have been prepared by Hopkin & Koen, 244 Fifth avenue.

The Standard Automobile Company will erect a building at the southwest corner of Broadway and Fifty-sixth street. James B. Baker and William F. Hemstreet, 156 Fifth ave., architects.—Architect Ernest Flagg, 35 Wall street, has been commissioned to prepare plans for a club house and garage building, for the Automobile Club of America. It will be situated on the north side of Fifty-fourth street near Broadway. It will be fire-proof in construction and will be provided with all modern conveniences. The members of the building committee are Albert R. Shattuck, Colgate Hoyt and Dr. Schuyler S. Wheeler. The cost for site and building will be over $500,000. No contracts have been let.—It is stated that sites have been selected for some of the model tenements to be erected by Mr. Henry Phipps. One site is on the north side of Thirty-first street east of Second avenue and another is on Sixty-third street. The City and Suburban Home Company, 281 Fourth avenue, can give information.

—Mr. W. R. H. Martin, The Martinique, 56 West Thirty-third street, will erect a six-story hotel at the southwest corner of Hudson and West Twelfth streets. It will be for working girls and will contain two hundred and fifty-eight sleeping rooms and six bath rooms to a floor. There will be a restaurant, laundries, roof garden and reception room. The cost will be about $150,000. The plans will be prepared by Architect Ralph S. Townsend, 29 East Nineteenth street. The structure will be Colonial in design, of granite, brick and terra-cotta. The plans will be ready for bids about April 1st.—Plans are nearing completion by Architects McKim, Mead & White, 160 Fifth avenue, for the building to be erected for the Women's Club, at 120, 122 and 124 Madison avenue. It will be four stories high, of brick and white marble in Colonial style. There will be a large assembly room, a gymnasium, a running track, swimming pool, baths, restaurant, kitchen, servants' quarters and a roof garden. The officers of the club are Mrs. J. Borden Hardman, president; Mrs. Richard Quinn, first vice president; Mrs. John Jacob Astor, second vice president, and Mrs. W. S. Rainsford, secretary.—Architects Clinton & Russell, 32 Nassau street, have prepared plans for the new building to be erected at 176-178 Broadway. ### ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

W. R. Wallen, architect, of Collinsdale, Pa., has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, Mr. James Artman, of Collinsdale avenue, that place who is ready for bids, for a twin house, to be built at Collinsdale, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, 34x60 feet and will be built of frame with stone foundations. It will have a porch on the front and contain all modern improvements and appointments.

Albert E. Westover, architect, Keith Building, is working on plans and specifications for a new furniture store to be built at Twelfth avenue and Twelfth street, Altoona, Pa. It will be six stories and basement high, 65x120 feet and will be built of brick and slow burning construction. It will be equipped with elevator, steam heat, wired for electricity and have all up-to-date appointments. Will send same to local builders in about three weeks' time for bids.

Bailey & Bassett, architects, 421 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new residence to be built at Haverford, Pa., for O. W. Paxton. It will be three stories high, frame and stone, and will have porch on front. The interior will be in hardwood finish and it will have all up-to-date appointments. Bids due March 23. The following are bidding: Gray Brothers, Rosemont, Pa.; M. N. Croll, of Radnor, Pa.; J. D. Lengel, of Wayne, Pa.; F. E. Wallace and P. J. McDevitt, of this city.

Harry Macomb, architect, 717 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and bids have been advertised for, for the erection of two school houses at Collingswood, N. J. They will be two stories and basement high and will be built of brick and have the usual school house appointments. Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., builders, Bailey Building, are bidding. Bids due April 1st. He has been commissioned to prepare plans and specifications for a new bank building to be built on Broadway above Kaighn avenue, Camden, N. J., for the Camden National Bank of that city. It will be one story and basement high. Further details given later.

Milligan & Webber, architects and engineers, 520 Walnut street, are working on plans for a five-story store building to be built at Hazletton, Pa., for William Glover. It will measure 82x120 feet, and will be built of brick and stone. The first floor will be a department store, with offices and flats above. It will have all modern conveniences. Bids will be invited shortly. They also are working on plans for a five-story bachelors' apartment house, to be built at the southwest corner of Broad and Pine streets. It will measure 22x75 feet, and will be built of brick, with stone and terracotta trimmings and contain all improvements and cost $35,000. Bids will be invited shortly.

Peter Kuhn, architect, office Tenth and Diamond streets, will prepare plans and specifications for a new hotel to be built at 4935-37 North Broad street near Logan Station, for John A. Fitzpatrick. The plans provide for a three-story brick and stone structure, 40x80 feet. It will contain 42 rooms, with all modern improvements. An automobile station and a large stable will also be erected. The same architect prepared plans and specifications for an operation of 9 three-story houses, one three-story store and dwelling and twenty-six two-story houses to be built in the Thirty-eighth ward, for Daniel J. Munday, owner. They will measure 16x57 feet, 15x57 feet, and will be built on the following streets: Seventeenth street south of Erie avenue, Seventeenth and Pacific streets, Erie avenue, Nineteenth street north and below Wingohocking street. They will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements. This operation will cost $145,000.

Wilson, Harris & Richards, architects and engineers, Drexel Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates, for a new residence, to be built at Rosemont, Pa., for Chas. Sim, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high, stone and half timber, with porch on front. The interior in hardwood finish and will contain all modern improvements. Bids due March 27. The following are bidding: John F. Worrell, Gray Brothers, George L. Croll, of Rosemont, Pa.; Mr. Graham, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.; W. H. Burns, West Chester, Pa.; George F. Payne & Co., and F. B. Davis, of this city. They are also working on plans and specifications for house and stable for Ralph J. Isard, Esq., to be built at Haddonfield, N. J. They will be frame and stone. The house will be two and a half stories high and the stable one-story and loft, with the usual appointments. They are also working on plans and specifications for a new club house for the Mutual Republican Club of the Thirteenth Ward, to be built at 711 Spring Garden street. It will be four stories and basement high and will be built of brick and stone. The basement will contain bowling alleys, shuffleboards, etc.; the first floor will have parlor and reception rooms, with meeting room and all club appointments on the remaining floors. Further details will be given later.

Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building, Camden, N. J., is working on plans and specifications for the new Broadway Theatre, to be built at Newton avenue and Walnut street, for M. W. Taylor Amusement Company, of Camden. The ground which it will be built on is a triangular shaped lot, measuring 150x80 feet, and running to a point. The theatre will be built of brick, with Indiana limestone trimmings, with a handsome entrance on the angle. The stairway will be brick enclosed. Between the stage and orchestra a fire wall will be built. In the basement will be a rathskeller. The first floor, orchestra, foyer, ticket office; second floor, balcony, ladies' parlor, private office, etc.; third floor, gallery and apartment for Mr. Taylor. This theatre will seat 2,200 persons. On top will be a roof garden, with stage on which performances will be given during the summer months. The theatre proper will be equipped, with up-to-date stage, automatic sprinklers and handsomely decorated on the interior, and will cost $75,000. Plans will go out for bids in about one week. He will send plans out on March 24th for a five-story warehouse to be built at Front and Federal streets for W. S. Scull. It will measure 32x50 feet, and will be built of brick and slow burning construction. Also repairs to his plant recently damaged by fire, and the building of an addition five stories high, 15x40 feet, of brick and slow burning construction. Also an elevator well five stories high. He will also send plans out the same day for the new Colonial residence to be built at Haddonfield, N. J., for S. H. Hillman. It will be two and a half stories high, 43x45 feet, and will be built of stone and frame, with porch on front and all conveniences. He is working on plans for a parochial school to be built at Spruce and St. John streets for the German Roman Catholic congregation of SS. Peter and Paul, Rev. L. Matt, pastor. It will be two stories and basement high, 49x137 feet, and will be built of stone. In the basement will be banquet hall, kitchen, etc., with a tunnel leading to the church. The first floor will contain 8 classrooms; the second floor, auditorium, with a fully equipped and up-to-date stage, with scenery, curtain, etc. This auditorium will seat 760 persons. Cost, $35,000. He will send plans out for bids in a little while.

Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the new house and stable to be built at Merion, Pa., for James Kater, Esq. The house will be two and a half stories high, and the stable one-story and loft. The house measures 50x50 feet; the stable 30x26 feet, both to be built of frame and shingle. Bids due March 27th. The following are bidding: P. J. Hurley, Smith Hardican, R. C. Ballinger & Co., H. M. Zane, D. A. McClelland, Oakes & Tyas, of this city; Jos. Reed, W. Frenz, of Flourtown, Pa.; Wm. Russell, Paoli, Pa.; J. D. Lengel, of Wayne, Pa., and Milton W. Young, of Overbrook, Pa.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

R. E. White, architect and engineer, has moved to larger quarters. Room 918, from 903, Pennsylvania Building, Fifteenth and Chestnut streets. This move was made necessary owing to him being cramped for room and to accommodate his increasing business.

Harry S. Reinhold, Jr., and D. M. Van Horn, associate architects, 1004 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications for a new residence, to be built at Wildwood, N. J., for William Jordan, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high and will have porch front and contain fourteen rooms, baths, and all improvements.

It is reported that T. T. Rockett, proprietor and owner of the apartment house now located at 633-35 North Nineteenth street, will build a large addition to match in style of architecture with the present building. It is rumored that this addition will be four stories high and will be equipped with every convenience and appointment.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth street, is working on plans and specifications for a handsome new residence, to be built at Wenonah, N. J., for R. H. Comey, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone. It will be Colonial in design, with porches on front and sides and have every convenience and appointment.

Hugh T. Downing, of Coatesville, Pa., and Pugh & Hubberd, associate architects, Real Estate Building, have completed plans for a store and office building to be built at Coatesville, Pa., for John Pennagar. It will be three stories high, 25x80 feet, and will be built of brick and stone. The first floor will be used as a store. The upper floors for office purposes.

Spencer Roberts, architect, Weightman Building, has completed plans and invited estimates for a new stable for J. Clarence White, Esq., to be built at 5528 Wayne avenue. It will be one-story and loft high, 34x32 feet, and be built of brick and stone. Bids due March 29th. The following are bidding: Wm. R. Dougherty, Doyle & Doak, M. C. Warren and A. Raymond Raff.

Edgar V. Seeler, architect, Real Estate Building, has completed plans and specifications and sent them to local builders for a new residence for J. C. Chase, Esq., to be built at Jacksonville, Fla. It will be two stories and attic high, 49x57 feet, and will be built of frame, with brick foundation. It will have a porch on front and have the usual appointments and conveniences.

Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the alterations and additions to the plant of H. L. and W. A. Haines, at Sheridan and Cherry streets. Bids due March 25th. The following are bidding: W. R. Dougherty, Geo. F. Payne & Co., Stacy Reeves & Son, Herbert Havens, S. R. Reilly, Appleton & Burrell, H. B. Shoemaker & Co., Fred. A. Havens, Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., and M. Magee & Co.

REAL ESTATE and BUILDING NOTES

Geo. F. Payne & Co., 401 South Juniper street, contractor, will make alterations and build additions to the residence at the southwest corner of Eighteenth and De Lancey Place, for Roswell G. Teltur.

Harry Gill, Jr., builder, 2200 Germantown avenue, Phila., has plans posted and wants sub-bids for 12 twin houses to be erected on the north side of East Walnut Lane, Germantown. They will be three stories high and will be built of brick, porch fronts, and will contain 12 rooms; all modern conveniences.

Harry B. Shoemaker & Co., builders, 17 South Ninth street, have been awarded the contract to make alterations and build additions to the residence of Morrison D. Wood, Esq., at 501 Hansberry street, Germantown, Phila., at a cost of $5,000, according to the plans and specifications of Robeson Lea Perot, architect, Bailey Building.

A. Raymond Raff, builder, 1635 Thompson street, has been awarded the contract to build the new German Theatre, new hotel and alterations to existing building at southwest corner of Franklin and Girard avenue. The lot measures 182x114 feet (details of this work previously noted). Work is estimated to cost $150,000. The plans and specifications by Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building.

All proposals for the new West Chester, Pa., postoffice have been rejected. Plans which were bid on for this building call for a brick structure, and it has now been decided to build a more elaborate one of stone. With this fact in view James Knox Taylor, Supervising Architect, of the Treasury Department, at Washington, D. C., is now engaged on the new plans and specifications and bids will be invited as soon as they are finished.

George Deaves, Ellwood Jennell, Llanerch, Pa.; McCongahy Bros., of Grassland, Pa.; Jos. Dyson, of Wayne, Pa., and Metzger & Wells, of this city, have submitted bids to Harry Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, for the new residence of John Berner, Jr., of Llanerch. It will be two and a half stories high, of frame and stone and all improvements.

Henderson & Co., builders, 1221 Arch street, have plans posted for a bank building to be built at the northwest corner of Baltimore and Holliday streets, Baltimore, for the German Bank, of that city. It will be two stories high, of stone and terra-cotta, 60x100 feet. Plans by Baldwin & Pennington, architects, of that city.

Wm. R. Dougherty, Samuel G. Harting, Edward Clifford, W. S. Kohl and W. C. Wright, builders, have submitted bids to Savery, Scheetz & Savery, architects, and Addison Hutton, consulting architect, Stephen Girard Building, for the new residence for G. Elwood Wagner, to be built on Emlen near Horter street, Germantown. It will be two stories and attic high, shingle residence, will have a porch on front and contain 12 rooms, with all improvements.

Henderson & Co., Ltd., Lynch Bros., the Edward F. Fonder Company, Wm. Christy & Son, John R. Wiggins & Co., and Metzger & Wells have plans posted for the proposed new public school to be built at the southwest corner of Thirty-second and Berks streets. It will be three stories high, with basement, of stone and contain 12 rooms; all appointments of a building of its kind. Bids due in the office of J. Horace Cook, architect, of the Board of Education, on March 28th before 3 o'clock.

Cramp & Co., builders, 1421 Filbert street, have plans posted for a group of buildings to be erected for the United States Power Department, near Dover, N. J. The plans provide for 6 brick and steel fireproof storehouses, each to measure 35x155 feet, a power house, carpenter shop, machine shop, blacksmith shop, a wheel and dynamo house, and a one-story brick and steel and concrete magazine for high explosives to measure 33x150 feet. This work is estimated to cost $125,000.

William Morrow, builder, 320 Harmony street, has submitted bids for alterations and additions to the saloon of Mr. Lewis Baretta, at 761 South Eighth street, according to the plans of J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 719 Walnut street; he also has plans posted for a residence, to be built at Oak Lane, Philadelphia. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone and brick with all modern improvements. Bids due March 24th. The plans and specifications are by W. W. Bretherick, architect, 905 Walnut street.

Edward Flood, builder, will erect an operation of 207 two-story houses and two-story stores and dwellings for Mr. Samuel Horner, Jr., owner, 733 Land Title Building, in the Thirty-third ward. They will measure 16x55 ft., 15x32 ft., 16x53 ft., and 15x24 ft., each, and will be built on the following streets: Madison between F and G streets, Willard between F and G streets, Wishart between Rorer and D streets, Allegheny avenue between Rorer and D streets, and Westmoreland between F and G streets. They will be built of brick and contain all modern improvements. This operation will cost $441,200.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

By an order promulgated by the President a Consultative Architectural Board has been constituted comprised of Bernard R. Green, Chairman; Daniel H. Burnham, Charles F. McKim, Augustus Saint-Gaudens and Frederick Law Olmstead, Jr. All plans and sites for public buildings must be approved by this board.—As soon as the Pennsylvania Railroad Company vacates the Mall steps will be taken toward beautifying the ground. Fine government buildings will occupy the south side of the avenue. It is estimated that the total cost of the improvements contemplated will cost about $150,000,000.—A. B. Standard has sent in bids for the Technical School to be erected in Pittsburg, Pa., by Andrew Carnegie.—Mr. Jules Demonet will erect a large building at 2021 I street, northwest, from plans prepared by Architects Harding & Upman. It will be three stories high, of pressed brick with stone trimmings and will be fitted up for factory and stable purposes.—The same architects have prepared plans for two dwellings, to be erected on Milwaukee street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, for

Charles C. and Edward E. Murray. Each house will be double with large porches and the usual modern conveniences.—The Thompson Starrett Company has been awarded the contract to erect the Kenesaw Apartment House for the Kenesaw Apartment House Company, at Sixteenth street, Kenesaw avenue and Mount Pleasant street. The structure will have frontages on three streets. It will be seven stories high, of brick and stone, fine interior finish, open plumbing, tile work, elevators and all modern conveniences. Mr. G. A. Harding is president of the company.—Architects Wood, Donn & Deming have prepared plans for an apartment house, to be erected for Messrs. Davidson, who are improving the whole of a square recently purchased. A number of dwellings have been built on the Nineteenth and S streets side of the square and the proposed apartment house will follow these dwellings in the Spanish style of architecture. It will be three stories high, of stucco walls and deep Spanish roof and overhanging eaves; fine interior finish and all modern conveniences. On the Florida avenue front, to the east of the proposed apartment house, a large building will be erected which will be finely finished and fitted up as a school for young ladies. It will be 40x180 feet.—Wyeth & Cresson, 1509 H street, northwest, have completed the plans for the dwelling to be erected on Sheridan Circle for Mrs. Jenness Miller. The same architects have plans for the dwelling for Dr. B. L. Hardin, to be erected at 1315 Connecticut avenue. It will be of marble and brick, finely finished interior.—The same architects have under construction a Colonial dwelling, at Greenwood, Virginia, for Mr. F. D. Owsley.—The plans of Hornblower & Marshall, 1516 H street, northwest, for a dwelling for Mr. Duncan Makin, provides for a large music room, extending through three stories.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

There will be a special meeting of the T-Square Club, on Wednesday, March 29th at their headquarters, 1204 Lyndal Alley, to consider new quarters. All the members are requested to attend.

H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and addition to Dr. Higbee's residence at 1703 South Broad street. Bids due April 7th. The following are bidding: A. Raymond Raff, F. J. Hurley, H. Marion Zane, Jacob Myers & Son and H. C. Dahl.

Seymour Davis and Paul A. Davis, 3d architects, 907 Walnut street, plans have been accepted by the Building Committee for the new high school to be built at West Chester, at a cost of $100,000. It will be built of brick, with stone trimmings and will measure 140x110 feet. A gymnasium manual training rooms, lunch rooms, etc. will be in the basement. The upper floors will contain sixteen class rooms. The structure will be two stories high. As soon as plans are completed bids will be advertised for.

Wilson, Harris & Richards, architects and engineers, Drexel Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a stable to be built at Haddonfield, N. J., for Ralph J. Iszard, Esq. The stable will be one-story and loft high and will be built of frame and stone, with all modern appointments. Bids due April 3d. The following are bidding: L. J. Stone, W. S. Capern, J. S. Hoopes, of Haddonfield, N. J.; J. S. Rodgers & Co., Stanwick, N. J.; J. E. & A. L. Pennock and F. B. Davis of this city.

Mantle Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street, is working on plans for improvements and alterations to an old Colonial residence in Clark county, Virginia. New heating plant will be installed, new plumbing, wiring, etc. He is now taking sub-bids. He is also working on plans for a handsome Colonial residence, to be built at Easton Pa. It will be three stories high and be built of brick and stone with all improvements. He will also make alterations and build addition to two properties at the same place. Too early for details.

W. W. Bretherick, architect, 905 Walnut street, is taking sub-bids for three townhouses to be built at Queen Lane and Laurens avenue, Germantown. They will be three stories high, porch fronts and have all conveniences. He is closing contracts for 97 houses to be built at Forty-ninth and Kingessing avenue. They will be two and three stories high, all conveniences. Bids have been submitted to him for the handsome new residence to be built at Oak Lane for J. H. Wallace. It will be stone and shingle, with all improvements. It is expected that contract will be awarded soon. He has also completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations to stores at 11 and 13 South Eighth street. Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a warehouse to be built for Crane & Co., at American and Master streets. It will be four stories high, 200x20x70 feet and will be built of brick and reinforced concrete; will have skylights and all modern improvements. Bids due April 10th. The following are bidding: Roydhouse, Arcy & Co., Henderson & Co., Appleton & Burrell Geo. F. Payne & Co., A. Raymond Raff Cramp & Co., Harry Brocklehurst, Herbert E. Havens.—Bids have been filed with the same firm by Belmont Iron Works, Herbert E. Havens and Kaighn & Draper, for the supports for tanks at Esterbrook Steel Pen Company, at Camden, N. J.

Andrew Carnegie, who recently gave $15,000 to the University Settlement, has increased the gift to $30,000. From outside sources $10,000 has been raised. It is proposed to include in the new building which will be erected on a lot 30x120 feet, at Twenty-sixth and Lombard streets, the following conveniences: Public baths, public laundry, club room for men, kindergarten roof garden, bowling alleys, gymnasium, printing office, carpenter shop, auditorium for lectures, physicians' office, savings bank etc. The building will also have rooms for the resident director and his family, and dormitory rooms for about five women residents and twelve or fifteen students from the University. Cope & Stewardson, 320 Walnut street, are the architects and the building will cost about $60,000. It is proposed to start work this summer. Information about the settlement may be secured from Dr. H. C. Wood, 1925 Christian street.

Heacock & Hokanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the new residence for E. C. Rossmasser, Esq., to be built on Church Lane, Germantown. It will be two and a half stories high, of brick and pebble-dash. It will measure 52x45 feet. Terrace on front; porch on side and rear. The interior will be in hardwood finish and contain all modern improvements. Bids due April 3d. The following are bidding: John Duncan, McCullen & Co., D. W. Sperry, Wm. H. Eddleman, F. L. Hoover & Sons, Inc., and George L. Sipps. The same firm of architects have completed plans and specifications and request sub-bids for a new parsonage, to be built at Lansdowne, Pa., for the Lansdowne Baptist congregation of that place. It will be two and a half stories high, 40 x 20 feet and will be built of frame with stone foundation. The interior will be in hardwood finish and contain all modern improvements and conveniences. Bids due in about one week's time.

Charles J. Brooke, architect, 14 South Broad street, is working on plans and specifications for a house and stable to be built at Frankford, Phila., for Mr. Charles S. Snyder. The house will be two stories high. The first story, stone; the balance, brick; 18x60 feet, and have all modern improvements. The stable will be built in the rear facing Arcadia street, and will be two stories high, of brick, 18x26 feet, and have the latest sanitary stable appointments. Will be ready for bids in a few days. He is also working on plans for a store building to be built at Fifth and Pendrick streets, for A. H. Nolt. It will be two stories high, 20x70 feet, built of brick, with every convenience. Plans will be finished shortly. He will invite bids in about 10 days for a handsome Colonial residence for Ralph N. Kellan, Esq., to be built at Haddonfield, N. J. It will be two and a half stories high, 40x26 feet, and will be built of brick and frame. It will have porches on two sides. The interior will be in hardwood with every convenience and appointment. Best plumbing, wired for electricity, tile baths, hot air heating, etc.

Albert W. Dilks, architect, Mutual Life Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the handsome new residence to be built at Whitford, Pa., for George Thomas, 3d, Esq. It will be Colonial in design and be built of stone, with slate roof and will measure 37x58 feet. It will have terrace and porches. The interior will be in hardwood finish. It will be heated by hot air; open plumbing, wired for electricity, tiled baths and every modern convenience and appointment. Bids due March 31st. The following are bidding: W. H. Burns, E. C. Walker, of West Chester, Pa.; J. D. Lengle, of Wayne, Pa., and R. C. Ballinger & Co. of this city.—He has also completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, W. S. Harlan, Esq., for a stable, to be built at Coatesville, Pa. It will be two stories high, of brick, 32x40 feet. The first floor will contain harness room, carriage house and stalls; the second floor will be coachman's quarters and hay loft. He has also sent plans and specifications to the Pocono Ice and Coal Company, for an ice house and office, to be built at Wilmington, Del. It will be two stories high, of brick. The owners will take bids.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Furness, Evans & Co., architects, 401 Chestnut street, are working on plans and specifications for a laundry building to be built on the grounds of the Jewish Hospital, at York and Tabor roads.

Proposals have been advertised for the new $150,000 home for the insane, to be erected at Lima, Delaware county, Pa. Plans and specifications by H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1204 Chestnut street.

G. W. and W. D. Hewitt, architects, Bullitt Building, are working on plans and specifications for an addition to the Old Men's Home, at Thirty-ninth and Baring street, and will invite bids shortly.

Andrew J. Sauer, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, is working on plans and specifications and invites estimates for a house and stable, to be built at Roxborough, Philadelphia. Plans will be ready for bids on April 10.

Clyde Smith Adams, architect, will move after April 15th from the Mutual Life Building to the New Drury Building, at 109-11 South Juniper street, Room 25. This move is necessary, owing to him being cramped for room and to accommodate his increasing business.

Spencer Roberts, architect, Weightman Building, has completed revised plans and specifications for the new stable for Mr. J. Clarence White, to be built at 5528 Wayne avenue. Bids due April 7th. The following are bidding: Doyle & Doak and W. R. Dougherty.

C. E. Oelschlager, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions to the residence at 2005 Pine street. Plans provide for a rear addition 16x30 feet, and general interior improvements and remodeling.

Heacock & Hokanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street, have plans in the course of preparation for a bungalow, to be built at White Bear Lake, near St. Paul, Minn., for Mr. Fred Reid. It will be two stories high, 28x35 feet and will be built of frame and shingles and have all the usual appointments.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, are working on plans and specifications for a modern apartment house to be erected at Nineteenth and Chestnut streets, the exact location and owner's name withheld for the present. It will be constructed of brick and terra-cotta and will be seven stories and basement high.

The T-Square Club has appointed Francis C. Osbourne professor of Architectural History of the University of Pennsylvania; John Molitor and Andrew J. Sauer as delegates to represent them at the Architectural League of America's annual convention, to be held at Pittsburg, on April 17th and 18th.

Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building, are working on plans and specifications for alterations and additions to an old farmhouse near West Chester, for the trustees of the Episcopal Church of the Crucifixion. After the improvements are made it will be used as a summer home for the poor and sick children.

At Altoona, Pa., Architects Shollar & Hersh have prepared plans for two school buildings, to be erected in Logan Township. One will be erected at Llyswen and the other in the Baltzell extension. They will be two stories high, of brick, stone trimmings, slate roofs, steam heat, sanitary plumbing, school furniture, etc.

Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a one-story store-house for S. L. Allen & Co., at Fifth and Glenwood avenue. It will be constructed of brick and slow burning construction. Bids due April 6th. The following are bidding: Wm. R. Dougherty, A. Raymond Raff, Appleton & Burrell and H. B. Shoemaker & Co.

Horace Trumbauer, architect, Land Title Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates until April 11th for the new training house to be built at Thirty-third and Lombard street for the Athletic Association of the University of Pennsylvania. The following are bidding: Doyle & Doak, J. E. & A. L. Pennock, John R. Wiggins & Co., George F. Payne & Co., Charles Gilpin, F. L. Michaelson, Wm. R. Dougherty, B. Ketcham & Son and The Chas. McCaul Company.

Wm. S. Vaux, Jr., and George Spencer Morris, associate architects, Bailey and Stephen Girard Buildings, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a dining hall building for the Haverford College, to be built on their grounds at Haverford, Pa. It will be two stories and basement high, 17x17 feet, and will be built of stone and contain every and most modern appointment. Bids due April 10th. The following have been invited to bid: L. T. Edward & Co., Haverford, Pa.; B. Ketcham & Sons, Wm. R. Dougherty, R. C. Ballinger & Co., and Stacy Reeves & Sons, of this city.

Wilson, Harris & Richards, architects, Drexel Building, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new clubhouse to be built at 711 Spring Garden street, for the Mutual Republican Club of the Thirtieth Ward. It will be built of brick and stone and terra-cotta and be four stories and basement high, and have every clubhouse appointment. Bids due April 12th. The following builders are bidding: Robt. Beatty & Son, F. B. Davis, Doyle & Doak, John N. Gill & Co., J. H. Jordan, William Margerum, D. A. McClelland, Geo. F. Payne & Co., J. E. & A. L. Pennock, Thomas Reilly, John R. Wiggins & Co., and Smith Hardican.

A regular meeting of the T-Square Club will be held at 1204 Lydell Alley, on Wednesday, April 5th. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock. A proposition will be presented to apply for permission to organize a T-Square Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. Final action will be taken on the resolution to purchase a property as a permanent home for the club. The following named gentlemen will be presented for active membership in the club: Albert H. Savery, Addison H. Savery and Henry N. Smith. The drawings of the final competition for the club year prize will be hung, criticised and voted for. The subject is, "A Main Entrance to a Base Ball Park."

At Pottsville, Pa., Architect W. D. Hill has prepared plans for a four-story brick hotel to be erected at Shenandoah, Pa., for Mr. C. Schmidt, manager of the Home Brewing Company. Mr. Schmidt will receive bids until April 12th for the construction of the building. Separate proposals will be received for electric light wiring, bells and telephone; plumbing and gas fitting; steam heating; tile floors and wainscoting; laundry machinery. The brewing company reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Each proposal to be marked for the part of work estimated on. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the brewery or at office of the architect, Pottsville, Pa.

Charles Hofmann, architect, 905 Walnut street, has prepared plans and specifications for a number of buildings to be built at Ocean City, N. J., for Mr. William Schriber. There will be two stores, one-story high, and a number of bath houses built, and will measure over all 50x167 feet, and will be built of frame and galvanized iron, copper work and slag roofs. Plans will be sent to local builders for bids.—He is also working on plans for two stores and apartments for Jos. I. Scull, to be built at the same place. It will be three stories high, 30x65 feet, and will be built of brick. The first floor will be stores and the upper floors apartments, with all modern conveniences.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

R. C. Ballinger & Co., builders, 218 North Thirtieth street, has been awarded the contract for store fixtures for the new restaurant and cafe of L. Blank & Son, at 1024-26 Chestnut street. Plans and specifications by Savery, Scheetz & Savery, architects, Stephen Girard Building.

THE GRAPHITE.

The Joseph Dixon Crucible Company's monthly periodical, "The Graphite," for April, is full of illustrations of large buildings and bridges on which graphite paint has been used to prevent rust.

Graphite paint, a long time ago, among sensible as well as experienced people, established for itself a lasting reputation as an anti-rust material, par excellence. Indeed, it can justly be said for it, that it was the correcting influence of a prevailing sentiment that any old greasy thing in the way of paint, skim and fat paint, was good enough for tin roofing and iron work anywhere and everywhere.

"The Graphite" for April gives all the evidence that is needed to convince anyone of its efficiency in preventing rust, as well as its durability, and it is now being used on the big Wanamaker building on Market street, because the architects, Burnham & Co., of Chicago, having erected more iron structural buildings than any similar concern in the country, know a thing or two about anti-rust paint, and consequently give Dixon's Graphite the preference.

REAL ESTATE and BUILDING NOTES

John R. Wiggins & Co., builders, Heed Building, have plans posted for a new clubhouse for the West Philadelphia Republican Club, to be located at Forty-first and Chestnut streets.

Joseph Graham, builder, at Bryn Mawr, Pa., has been awarded the contract to build the new stable and gardener's cottage at Haverford, Pa., for Dr. Register. It will be two stories high, of frame and shingle and contain all modern improvements. The plans and specifications are by Lindley Johnson, architect, Harrison Building.

P. J. Hurley, builder, 1216 Chancellor street, has been awarded the contract to build the new parochial school at Ashley, Luzerne county, Pa., for St. Leo's Roman Catholic congregation of that place. It will be two stories high, 66x100 feet, and will be built of brick and stone and contain all modern improvements. The plans and specifications are by Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street.

Edw. F. Fonder & Co., builders, Land Title Building, have awarded the contract to build for the United States Powder Department, Dover, Delaware. The plans provide for six brick and steel fire-proof storage houses, 55x155 each; a powder house, carpenter shop, machine and blacksmith shops, a wheel and dynamo house and a one-story brick, steel and concrete building, 53x150 feet, for high explosives.

Dodge & Day, engineers, Hunting Park avenue, Nicetown, Phila., have been commissioned to make plans for extensive shop improvements at Lansford, Pa., for the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company; also for the erection of a new centrally located power plant at the same place. This plant will provide current for the shops and the Tamaque & Lansford Street Railway.

Mr. Herbert Clarke, engineer for the railway company, will co-operate with them.

E. J. Heddin, builder, 14 South Broad street, has been awarded the contract to build the new house and stable at Merion, Pa., for James Kater, Esq. The house will be two and a half stories high, 50x50 feet, and the stable one-story and loft high, 39x26 feet, both to be built of frame and shingle (details previously noted).

The plans and specifications by Duhring, Okie & Ziegler, architects, South Penn Square Building. Work will proceed at once. Wells Brothers' Company, builders, Land Title Building, have been awarded one-eighth of the contract for the construction of the Free Technical Institute, which will be built at Pittsburg, Pa., by the money given by Andrew Carnegie. The amount of their contract was $499,700. It will cost $4,000,000 to construct the building complete.

Cramp & Co., builders, 1421 Filbert street, this city and Baltimore, have been awarded the contract by the Board of Awards, to build the Municipal Fish Market, on the square bounded by Swann and Water streets, Centre Market Space and West Falls avenue, Baltimore, Md. Their price was $103,376 (details previously noted). Plans and specifications by Simonson & Pietsch, architects, of that city. Work will proceed at once.

A. Raymond Raff, builder, 1635 Thompson street, has been awarded the contract to build the additions and make alterations to the plant of H. L. and W. A. Haines, at the northwest corner of Sheridan and Cherry streets. The addition will be six stories high, of the slow-burning mill construction. It will measure 48x49 feet and will have a tower fire escape. The plans and specifications are by Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street.

At Chester, Galey & Lord, manufacturers of mercerized goods, contemplate the erection of a new mill of extensive proportions, provided new dwellings are erected to accommodate their people. It is stated that the want of small houses in Chester has become so great as to act as a deterring influence in the development of that city's manufacturing interests as there are even now from 12,000 to 15,000 mechanics and others who are compelled to live in other places.

Bids have been filed by William Steele & Son, builders, 1600 Arch street, for the new textile plant to be built at Wayne and Roberts avenue, Germantown, for the Krout & Fite Company. The plans provide for a five-story and basement main building, 189x55 feet, with a wing 55x160 feet. A one-story office building, 45x45 feet, a boiler and engine house, 32x81 feet, all to be built of brick and trimmed with stone. They will have automatic sprinklers and all the modern appointments and are estimated to cost about $700,000.

The Twentieth Century Hot Air-Radiating Installation Company, of this city, has leased for a term of years, the building at 1309 Arch street. The company will occupy the first floor, after alterations have been completed, for office purposes. The entire building will be heated by the Twentieth Century System. The company has now in hand a large number of blue prints of new and old houses on which it is estimating for the installation of the new Twentieth Century System of Heating, besides the contracts already closed. Thos. W. Draper, 328 North Fifth street, contractor.

The proposals submitted for the new postoffice to be built at Lebanon, Pa., were opened in the office of James Knox Taylor, Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department. They were as follows: Fissell & Wagner, New York, $39,925; The Manheim Construction Co., Richmond, Va., $38,689; Richardson & Burgess, of Washington, D. C., $40,623; The Chas. McCaul Co., $41,791; Cramp & Co., $42,871; and Thomas Reilly of his city, $44,501; and Miller Bros., of Lebanon, Pa., $43,500. It has been decided to instruct James Knox Taylor, Supervising Architect, to prepare new plans and specifications for a better building; so, therefore, the Government has recalled all bids on the original building.

The plans of the Reading Railway for the elevation of its tracks provide for extensive improvements between the Terminal and Wayne Junction. The large oval trainshed will be displaced by the more modern umbrella-shaped sheds, and six extra tracks will be added. The station proper will be widened so that it will extend from Twelfth to Eleventh street. The tracks will lead in from Race street instead of Arch street. Between Terminal and Huntingdon street where the tracks are to be elevated, commodious passenger stations will be erected at Columbia avenue and Girard avenue and Huntingdon street, with large exits and entrances. The Terminal will be rearranged with larger quarters for baggage rooms, mail and express matters, etc. It is estimated that the Reading Railway Company will expend more than $5,000,000 on improvements in the city limits.

BUILDING and REAL ESTATE NOTES

The Architectural Woodworking Co., 1415 Wood street, have been awarded the contract for the interior fittings for a large store for J. G. McCrory & Co., at York, Pa., to include counters, shelving, show cases, etc.

Alex Chambley, builder, 243 South Tenth street, has started work on a three-story storage warehouse for Alexander Harding, to be built at 5109 Germantown avenue. It will contain all modern appointments and will cost $10,000.

Kendrick & Roberts, Inc., Bailey Buildings, have started work on the alterations and building an addition to the property at 922 Arch street, for Wm. Stearns. After the necessary work has been done it will be opened as an up-to-date restaurant and cafe.

W. B. Lawell, builder, Oak Lane, has started work on the new dwelling to be built at Seventieth avenue, east of York Road, Oak Lane. It will be two stories and attic high, 37x28 feet and will be built of brick and stone and cost $5,000.

E. J. Kritzburg and F. L. Michaelson & Co., builders, have plans posted for the house and stable for Mr. Charles S. Snyder, to be built at Frankford, Philadelphia (details previously noted). Plans and specifications by C. J. Brooke, architect, 14 South Broad street.

Frank E. Wallace, builder, De Long Building, has submitted bids for eight houses to be built on Brewery street, Falls of Schuylkill, for the Wm. Dobson estate. They will be two stories high, of brick, 15x28 feet, and contain all modern improvements and conveniences.

The Council of Allegheny, Pa., has passed an ordinance granting to the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago R. R. Co., a site on Church avenue and Federal street, that city, on which to erect a station. The plans are by W. H. Brown, Chief Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Charles P. Murray, builder, 2045 North Third street, will build six two-story houses at Chelton avenue, east of Sprague street, for Donnelly & Suss. They will measure 16x28 feet and will be built of brick and contain all improvements. The operation will cost $16,500.

E. W. Cuthbertson, builder, 334 Roxborough avenue, has been awarded the contract to build the five houses at Wood and Carson streets, Manayunk, for A. W. Leverington. They will be two stories high and will be built of brick and have all modern improvements.

Henderson & Co., Limited, builders, 1221 Arch street, have been awarded the contract to build the coal handling plant at Lardner's Point filtration station for the city. The buildings will be of structural steel with coal pockets, trestles and electrical apparatus and will cost about $12,000. Work will start at once.

Andrew Carnegie, in a letter to Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskoff, the president of the National Farm School, has assured him additional financial aid in the erection of an additional dormitory for the school at Doylestown, Pa., to the extent of $50,000, provided that the additional $50,000 can be raised by the Board of Directors in a specified time.

The Miles-Bement-Pond Company have purchased the large factory property at Nicetown, formerly occupied by the Cresswell & Waters Company. It will be improved and equipped with modern facilities for use as a foundry; new additions built, etc., and when finished will be occupied by the Bement-Miles Works' branch of the company.

A. S. Reed Bros. Co., builders, of Wilmington, Del., have been awarded the contract to erect the handsome Colonial residence to be built in the suburbs of Wilmington, Del., for Hamilton M. Barksdale, Esq. It will be three stories high, 84x96 feet, built of brick and Flemish bond (details previously noted). Plans by Albert W. Dilks, architect, 1001 Chestnut street.

It is reported that Cramp & Co., builders, 1421 Filbert street, this city, and Baltimore, Md., have been awarded the contract to erect the ten-story fireproof office building at Calvert, German and Mercer streets, Baltimore, Md., for the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company. It will measure 70x100 feet, and will be built of Indiana limestone and granite and will cost $200,000. Plans by Simon & Pietsch, architects, of that city.

THROUGH PENNSYLVANIA.

—At Hazleton, Luzerne county, a new school building will be erected on the South Side. The cost will be $35,000.

—At Pottstown, Montgomery Co., it is stated that a movement has been started to erect a new P. & R. Railroad Station.

—At Allegheny, Allegheny county, plans have been prepared by Architect C. G. Mentel, First National Bank Building, for a handsome dwelling, to be built in Spring Garden Borough, at a cost of $40,000.

—At Connellsville, Fayette county, the Riverside Water Company will receive bids until April 15, for the construction of water works, to cost $30,000. T. J. Mitchell is president of the company.

—At Hollidaysburg, Blair Co., it is stated that the Altoona Belt Line and Southern Traction company may consolidate and construct a trolley line between Hollidaysburg and Altoona. Attorney A. V. Dively is president of the Belt Line.

—At Reading, Berks county, Julius Hansen will erect a building on North Fifth street, near Centre avenue, to be fitted up for hotel purposes and to be called the Hansen House. The plans have been prepared by Architect A. A. Richter. Beard & Co. are the contractors.

THROUGH MARYLAND.

At Baltimore, the Hotel Denmore, Park Heights avenue, has been bought by Miss F. Jennie Meyers, from the Denmore Park Hotel and Water Company. The property will be improved and enlarged.

The United Railways and Electric Company will spend about $15,000 on improvements at River View Park.—John Hiltz & Son have been awarded the contract to erect two warehouses for the De Ford Company. The cost will be about $35,000.—The apartment house to be erected at the northeast corner of Charles and Read streets, by Mr. William B. Ehlen will cost about $25,000. The structure will be eight stories high, of brick and stone, fine interior finish, steam heat, open plumbing and all modern conveniences.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

It is stated that the War Department has rejected the bids for the erection of a mess hall and dormitory from plans by Baldwin & Pennington, of Baltimore. The plans will probably be revised and new bids called for.

The Municipal Building Commission has awarded contract for marble for municipal building to B. A. & G. N. Williams, of New York.—Wood, Dunn & Deming have prepared plans for a bank and office building for the International Banking Corporation. The cost of the structure will be $100,000.

WANTS.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Watson & Huckel, architects, 1213 Walnut street, are working on plans for a new Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, to be built at Sylvan Heights, near Harrisburg, Pa., by Bishop Shanahan (further details later). Also plans for a two-story factory building for G. W. Kold, to be built at Meadow and Jackson streets, this city.

At Morristown, N. J., Architect George W. Bower has prepared plans for a frame dwelling to be erected for Ezra Dayton, Esq., at Bernardsville, New Jersey. The structure will be two stories and attic, well furnished throughout and provided with modern conveniences including steam heat. The cost will be about $5,500.

At Baltimore, Md., the plans of Pell & Corbett, of New York City, have been accepted by the trustees and building committee of the Maryland Institute, for its new building to be erected at Mount Royal avenue and Lanvale street. Thirty-three plans were submitted in competition. The accepted plans call for a structure of Italian renaissance style, of granite, marble or Indiana limestone. It will be three stories high, with a basement.

Bailey & Bassett, architects, 421 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and improvements to the Memorial Church of St. Paul, at Overbrook and Lancaster avenues, at Overbrook, Pa. Bids due April 15th. The following are bidding: Jacob Myers & Son, Milton W. Young, Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., The Smith, Hardican Company, R. C. Ballinger & Co., Appleton & Burrell.

Churchman & Thomas, architects, Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a stone school to be built at Llanerch, Pa., for the Board of Education, of that place. It will be two stories and basement high, 75x33 feet, and have all the school appointments. Bids due April 18th. The following are bidding: F. W. Allison & Co., Appleton & Burrell, H. M. Zane, Geo. A. Glenn & Co., and William H. Lower, of this city; Gray Bros., of Rosemont, and George W. Deaves, of Llanerch, Pa.

Brookie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invite estimates for the house and stable to be built at Villa Nova, Pa., for George C. Thayer, Esq. The house will be two and a half stories high, 51x22 feet, and be built of frame and stone. The stable two stories high, 33x32 feet, also of the same material. They will contain all up-to-date appointments. The following are bidding: P. J. Hurley, Camblos & Co., W. R. Dougherty, Thos. Little & Son, of this city; F. H. Mahan, of Ardmore, J. D. Lengel, of Wayne.

All statements in the papers as to what the Boothby Hotel Company, 1231-33-35 Chestnut street, will or will not do in the way of the erection of a new hotel building are premature to say the least, and are more the result of intellectual enterprise than of fact. The hotel may be built, but under the peculiar nature of transactions of this kind, hotels are not usually constructed until legal possession of the land has first been secured. In a nutshell 1230 and 1233 Chestnut street do not belong to the Boothby Hotel Company and until it does any further reference to the hotel project is unnecessary.

H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and estimates are being taken for the new home for the insane, to be erected at Lima, Pa., for the directors of the poor of Delaware county (details previously noted). Bids due April 27th. Appropriation for the work, $150,000. The general contractors who are bidding are: W. E. Reilly, J. & T. Oliver, Isaac Founders and William Provost, Jr., of Chester, Pa.; Wells Bros. Company, The Chas. McCaul Company, George C. Dietrich, Edwin Gilbert & Co., G. A. Glenn & Co., Henderson & Co., Ltd., Cramp & Co. and Ernest Yarnall, of this city.

Arrangements have been perfected for the transfer of over two hundred acres of ground in the vicinity of Gorgas, Main street, Mt. Pleasant and Stenton avenues, Chestnut Hill, by a syndicate represented by Frank Mauran, agent, of which one is Mr. Ash-ton Tourison, builder, of 28 South Mole street. The total cost of laying out the land and erecting handsome dwellings thereon will reach the sum of $1,000,000. It is the intention of those interested in the project to lay it out similar to Pelham with handsome drives and walks. No properties will be built on this tract to cost less than $10,000. Branch sewers will be laid shortly as well as gas and water mains.

Guy King, architect, 431 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications for a new residence to be built at Merion, S. C., for Mr. E. H. Butler. It will be two and a half stories high, of frame and shingle, with porches and all modern conveniences. Also for alterations to the residence of Thomas S. Harrison, Esq., at Pomfret, Conn. Plans provide for new kitchen, billiard room, tile bathrooms, new bedrooms, etc. Also for the alterations to the residence of Richard Sharpe, Esq., at Glen Summit, Pa. There will be new bedrooms, new tile baths, porches, etc. Also on alterations to the residence of Major I. Sterns, South River street, Wilkesbarre, Pa. Plans provide for exterior and interior remodeling, new porches, new baths, library, tile and Mosaic work, hot water heating, etc.

Henry Loomis Curtis, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications for the following and sent same to the owners who will take bids: A new residence two and a half stories high, 49x30 feet, to be of frame and shingle, porch fronts and all modern improvements, to be built at Roland Park, Baltimore, Md., for the Roland Park Company; a new residence for H. B. Forman, Jr., to be built at Park Hill, Yonkers, N. Y. It will be English domestic in design, two and a half stories high, 60x23 feet, and will be built of frame and cement plaster, with porches, all conveniences, etc.; also a bungalow for Walter Loftus, Esq., to be built at Norwich, Conn. It will be one story and attic high, 24x48 feet, and will be of frame and shingle, with the usual appointments.

Andrew J. Sauer, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the house and stable for Mrs. A. S. Knipe to be built at Roxborough, Philadelphia. It will be two and a half stories high, 35x41 feet, and will be built of stone with slate roof. It will have porch on front and have two baths, with tile floors, heated by steam, wired for gas, electric lighting and every convenience and appointment. The stable will be one story and loft high, 20x37 feet, and will also be built of stone. It will contain three stalls for horses, carriage house and quarters for coachman. The following builders have been invited to bid: E. D. Eddleman, Mr. H. Hayes, E. E. Cuthbertson, Mr. Wylie and F. E. Wallace. Bids due April 20th.

Clyde Adams, architect, Mutual Life Building, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, Mathias Kerstula, 32 North Hobert street, who will take bids for an operation of 28 handsome two-story houses to be built on Chestnut street west of 60th. They will have pomepian brick fronts with porches and terraces, tile baths and every convenience and appointments. He has also completed plans and specifications and sent them to S. S. Cassel, owner, at Flourtown, Pa., for a twin house to be built at that place. It will be three stories high 35x53 feet and will be built of hard red brick with slate mansard roof and contain all modern improvements. He has also been commissioned by S. K. Passmore, Esq., to prepare plans for his handsome new residence to be erected on Wayne avenue near Lincoln drive, Germantown. It will be in old English design, constructed of stone, two and a half stories high, measuring 45x21 feet. The interior will be in hardwood finish, open brick fireplaces, tile baths, hot air heating and every convenience and appointment. He will take bids in about 10 days time. He also informed us that after April 15th he will be located in his new offices in the Drury Building, Juniper below Chestnut street.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Hon. Wm. Potter, of the Supreme Court, has purchased two acres of ground at Wallingford, Pa., from Col. A. K. McClure, upon which he will erect a handsome new residence for a permanent home both winter and summer.

Price & McLanahan, architects, 1624 Walnut street, are working on plans and specifications for a handsome stone house to be built at Pittsburg, for James J. Turner, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, west of Pittsburg, Pa.

Emil Hartman, architect, 514 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invites sub-bids for five three-story store and dwellings to be built on the north side of Baltimore avenue between 50th and 51st street. They will be constructed of brick and stone and have porch fronts and all modern conveniences. Bids due April 19th.

McIlwain & Roberts, architects, Land Title Building, have completed plans and specifications for alterations, interior and exterior, to the residence of Henry Tatnall, at Bryn Mawr, Pa. Bids due April 14th. The following are bidding: Metzger & Wells, F. T. Maguire, of this city; F. H. Mahan, of Ardmore, Pa., and Geo. Rustine, of Bryn Mawr, Pa.

R. Howell, president of the Pelham Ice Company at Wayne Junction, Philadelphia, is taking bids for a stable to be built there for the company. It will be two stories high, 30x53 feet and will be built of stone and have the usual sanitary stable appointments. The plans and specifications were prepared by A. W. Dilks, architects, Mutual Life Building.

Heacock & Hokanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a new residence for Mr. J. V. Holthy to be built at Lansdowne, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, 32x36 feet and will be built of stone and single, with porch on front and have all modern improvements. Bids due April 20th. The following are bidding: Wm. Shuster, Edgar Bishop and H. M. Zane.

M. I. Kast, architect, Harrisburg, Pa., has plans in the course of preparation for a handsome new Lutheran church to be built at Muncy, Pa. It will be one-story and gallery high, measuring 60x120 feet, and will be built of stone with slate roof and will contain Sunday School room, Class room and auditorium to seat 325 persons. It will be heated by steam, wired for electricity and contain all the up-to-date ecclesiastical furnishings.

Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, is working on plans and specifications for remodeling old house at 122 West Upsal street, Germantown. Building new wing three stories high, of stone, new porch, three new tile baths and a new stable to adjoin house to be two stories high, of stone. The plumbing, hot water heating, electric wiring, gas fixtures are reserved, and not in general contract. Plans will be ready for bids about April 15th.

BUILDING and REAL ESTATE NOTES

After the necessary alterations and additions have been made at 930 Chestnut street, it will be opened up as new banking quarters by The National Deposit Bank.

Stacy Reeves Son, Burd P. Evans, J. E. & A. L. Pennock, builders, have plans posted for alteration and addition to the residence at 196 Chelton avenue for Robert P. Brown, Esq. Bids due April 15th. Plans and specifications by Walter Smedley, architect, Stephen Girard Building.

Turner & Stewart, builders, Camden, N. J., have been awarded the contract to build the five-story warehouse at Front and Federal streets, that city, for W. S. Scull and make repairs to the plant recently destroyed by fire according to the plans and specifications of Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building.

Jno. Curtis Co., builders at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., have been awarded the contract to build the three additional stores to the People's Bank Building, at that city, that will be used for office purposes. A new elevator will be installed and general improvements to the present building will be made. Plans and specifications by Guy King, architect, 431 Walnut street.

J. Sims Wilson, builder, 1125 Brown street, has been awarded the contract to build the new residence for E. C. Rossmasser, Esq., on Church Lane, Germantown. It will be two and a half stories high, of brick and pebble dash. It will measure 52x45 feet and will contain all modern improvements. Plans by Heacock & Hokanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., builders, Fidelity Building, have plans posted for a 13-story office building for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to be erected at Baltimore and Charles street, Baltimore, Md. It will be constructed of brick, stone and terra-cotta, and will be fire-proof and measure 159x144 feet, and contain all the up-to-date appointments of a building of its kind. Bids due April 24th.

It is reported that one of the biggest operations of the season will shortly be begun by

F. L. Michaelson & Son, builders, Land Title Building, on a block of ground bounded by 58th and 59th, Chestnut & Walnut streets. It is estimated that several hundred two and three-story modern dwellings will be erected on this plot of ground at a cost of over half a million dollars. Plans will be ready for bids about April 22nd.

At a recent meeting of the Master Builders' Exchange, held at the Exchange, 18 South 7th street, the following firms were elected members of the Masters Builders' Exchange: Drehmann Paving Co., James E. Clark, Herbert H. Downsborough, Bowman S. Sterling, Richard C. Remmey & Sons, Joshua M. Holmes, Alex Wilson, Jr., James J. Harnett, David McKibbin, George L. Wetherell Co., G. M. & J. M. Zane and Harry Heist.

Geo. Bochman, Wm. Wrifford, Wm. Severns and Turner & Stewart, of Camden, N. J., Geo. Dietrich, Wm. R. Dougherty and P. J. Hurley builders, of this city, have submitted bids to Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building, Camden, for the new parochial school to be built at Spruce and John streets, that city, for the German Catholic congregation of SS. Peter and Paul. It will be two stories and basement high of stone, 49x137 feet. Details previously noted.

Bids were opened by the Commissioners for remodeling and building additions to the Court House at Hollidaysburg, Pa. None of the bids was in conformity with the conditions and requirements, therefore the Commissioners awarded the contract to W. V. Hughes & Son, at $106,500, of that place, but the award is being held up by injunction proceedings entered by the Elias Baker heirs as an unnecessary expenditure. The plans and specifications are by W. L. Plack, architect and engineer, 1208 Chestnut street.

With the approaching completion of the Subway and the elevated road on Market street it is predicted that there will be an astonishing growth in Delaware county. One of the heaviest option holders is a syndicate of capitalists who are financially interested in the Rapid Transit Company. They have secured options on several large tracts in the vicinity of Kellyville and Garretford. Robert Dixon has taken title to 50 acres of ground near Garretford, Pa. Floyd Stevens and John Stofer have also purchased ground near there and they will erect several hundred twin houses.

H. Marion Zane, builder, 1318 Chestnut street, has submitted bids to Bunting & Shirlley, architects, 140 North 15th street, according to their revised plans for Biddle Press Building, details previously noted. He also has plans posted for two stores and four dwellings to be built on the West Chester Road, at Lanerch, Pa., for the Lanerch Development Company. They will be two and a half stories high, of stone and frame, and contain all modern improvements. Bids due April 14th. The plans and specifications by H. L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Charles J. Brooke, architects, 14 South Broad street, is working on plans and specifications and will be ready for bids the middle of next week for a residence for Ralph N. Kellan, Esq., to be built at Merchantville, N. J. It will be two and a half stories high, 30x42 feet and will be built of brick and frame and contain all the up to date appointments and conveniences.

W. R. Waller, architect, Collingdale, Pa., is working on plans and specifications. Will send them to the owners the middle of next week, Mr. Austin Smith, of Collingdale, Pa., for a new residence to be built at Aldan, Pa. It will be two-story and mansard roof high and will have a porch on the front and rear side. The interior will be in chestnut finish, and it will have every convenience and appointment. The owner will take sub-bids on all work.

Clyde S. Adams, architect, Drury Building, Juniper below Chestnut street, is working on plans and specifications for a handsome twin residence to be built at Oak Lane for William Idler, Esq. It will be two and a half stories high, 38x54 feet and will be built of stone and half timber. It will have porches on front and side with conservatories on the side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will contain ten rooms, with baths and every convenience. Will be ready for bids in about one week's time.

George I. Lovatt, architect, 420 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for new rectory and finished basement of the St. Patrick Roman Catholic Church to be erected at Norristown, Pa. The rectory will be three stories high, 24x100 feet and will be built of stone with slate roof, with all the up-to-date appointments. The finished basement will be one story high, 15x28 feet and also be constructed of stone with the usual church furnishings. Bids due April 20th, 5 p. m. The following are bidding: Richard Kierns, of Bridgeport, Pa.; Michael Lawler, Norristown, Pa.; and John McShane, F. T. Maguire, Jacob Myers' Sons and P. J. Hurley, of this city.

Robeson Lea Perot, architect, Bailey Building, has prepared plans for a finely finished drill hall and gymnasium for the Delaware College, at Wilmington, Del., and sent same to the board of trustees for their approval. The plans provide for a building 45 feet wide and 90 feet deep, built of Flemish bond brick. The building will be one-story high, with peaked roof and basement. The interior finish will be of brick, so there will be no plastering to dampen and crumble. The main floor will have an area of 45x90 feet, unobstructed. This will be drill floor and gymnasium. In the basement will be swimming pool, shower and other baths. It is proposed to erect the structure on the site of the present greenhouse to the north of the college building. The last Legislature appropriated $15,000 to provide for improvements at the college.

C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street, has prepared plans and specifications for two elaborate four-story brick residences, to be erected on premises 3909 Spruce street, Twenty-seventh ward, for Mr. C. Howard Schermerhorn. Plans call for one single house to be in the Spanish style, 22 feet 6 inch front, 72 feet 6 inches deep, containing 22 rooms; one Colonial style party wall house with 20 rooms. Each house has three bath rooms, large open timbered reception halls and dining rooms, mosaic vestibules, tiled bath rooms and kitchens; the finishes to be oak, birch and mahogany. Large open staircases of novel design with large halls in second floors opening into library and den. The fourth floor contains a large billiard room. Open fireplaces in cut stone and tile provided for in the main chambers, halls, library, etc. Exteriors to be in Roman mottled iron and red brick, green slate roofs and copper bays. Front porches twelve feet wide, with stone trimmings. Leaded and plate glass is abundantly shown throughout. Return circulation of hot water called for and hot air heating provided. The lots will be 175 feet deep. The following contractors have plans posted: David H. McClelland, Lynch Brothers, A. Whitehead, Burd P. Evans, Metzger and Wells. Bids are due April 24, 1905.

Chas. W. Bolton and John J. Dull, associate architects, Witherspoon Building, are working on plans for a new Presbyterian Church to be erected at Jamaica, New York. It will be one-story and gallery and basement high, and 100x100 feet, and will be built of stone and will contain Sunday-school room to seat 800 persons, and auditorium to seat 1,000 persons, with bowling alleys, recreation rooms, etc., in the basement. Also plans for a Sunday-school building for the South Presbyterian congregation to be built at Easton, Pa. It will be one-story, gallery and basement high, and be built of brick and stone, all improvements. Also for two houses for J. W. Fricker, to be built at Reading, Pa. They will be two and a half stories high, of brick and contain all modern improvements. Also for a new preparatory school for the Allegheny College, at Meadville, Pa. It will be two stories high, 60x90 feet, and will be built of brick and stone, with slate roof and contain eight classrooms, audience room, etc., with gymnasium in the basement. Also preparing plans for a gymnasium building for girls for the same college. It will be three stories high, of stone and brick, 60x45 feet. The first floor and basement will be the gymnasium, with dormitory on the second and third floors. They are also working on plans for a new wing to be built to the main building of this college. It will be four stories high, 40x80 feet, and contain all the usual appointments. Also additions to the present Rutter Hall. Also plans for two dwellings for professors to be built on the ground for Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa. They will be two and a half stories high, stone and half timber, and contain all modern conveniences. Also plans for a new fire house for Company No. 2, to be built at Conshohocken, Pa. It will be two stories high, of brick and have the usual appointments.

Guy King, architect, 431 Walnut street, is working on plans and specifications for a handsome hotel, to be known as the Grant Hotel, and to be erected at Mount MacGregor, N. Y., for the Grant Hotel Company. Mount MacGregor is best known by reason of the fact that General U. S. Grant spent the last days of his life there. It will be four stories and basement high, 450x125 feet, first floor built of field stone, balance frame, provision being made in the plans for additional structures as the same may become necessary. The hotel will be Colonial in design and substantially built with all the home atmosphere and comforts. There will be 125 rooms, all arranged to be used single or en-suite and each suite will have its private bath and open fire-place; every room will have an outside exposure and long distance 'phone in each. On the first floor there will be the main hall, spacious dining rooms, offices, ample fireplaces, grill rooms, ladies' parlor, reading room, private dining room and a large porch extending to a handsome pavilion overlooking the valley. The basement will contain a model kitchen, bakery, store room, cafe, a new idea in billiard room and a first-class barber shop. There will also be a building built to supply power, heat and light, also a refrigerator plant; equipped with elevators, lighted by electricity and have every modern and up-to-date hotel appointment and convenience. It is expected that working plans will be prepared and bids be invited as soon as possible so that the work on the new hotel can be started in the early summer. It is proposed also to erect at a suitable distance from the hotel an amusement building, containing swimming pool, bowling alleys, shuffleboards, squash court and dancing hall; also a kursaal containing theatre with all up-to-date appointments, swimming pool, etc.; also, 50 handsome cottages, two and a half stories high, to cost from $3,500 to $5,000 and contain all modern improvements.

OBITUARY.

We learn with deep regret that Florence J. Lynch, wife of Mr. Calvin Z. Lynch (of the firm of Lynch Bros. builders), died on April 16th last. She had been in poor health for some time, but as she had started to improve, her death was sudden for all. Mrs. Lynch was a good wife and a patient sufferer, and we extend to Mr. Lynch our heartfelt sympathy now in the hour of his great loss. But we have the consolation of knowing that "He who does all things does them for the best."

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

The Trustees of the Broad Street Baptist Church at Broad and Brown streets have decided to sell the property to Temple College, and as soon as possible they will have plans and specifications prepared and erect on this site a new college building to contain medical, law and theological departments. The property is valued at $75,000.

Archbishop Ryan has announced his intention to organize a new parish in the southwestern section of West Philadelphia. The site purchased for the new parish comprises half the city block bounded by Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth streets, Hazel and Cedar avenues. It will be called the Church of the Transfiguration. The new pastor is Rev. James J. MacArann.

The Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company is working on plans and specifications for an extension to the machine shop at their shops at Reading, Pa. It is the intention of the company to make it about 400 feet longer and will be constructed of iron and brick, also to build a large storage house for wheels. The plans will soon be ready for estimates.

Charles E. Oelschlagel, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications, and invited estimates for a new Colonial Residence for Frank Hurlburt, Esq., to be erected at Oak Lane. It will be three stories high, 32x49 feet, and built of frame, stone and shingle. It will have fourteen rooms, with all modern improvements. Bids due April 22d. The following are bidding: P. J. Hurley, E. J. Kreitzburg, Alex Chamblay, William Christy & Son, William Godfrey, M. E. Hauser, Hill & Stevens and William Lawall.

Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, has invited Burd P. Evans, William C. Wright, McClintock & Weaver, John Detlefs, William R. Dougherty and George Sorber, builders, for the alteration to residence, building of a new wing and new stable (details previously noted) for Mr. John A. Carter at 122 West Upsal street. Bids due April 22.

Otto C. Wolf, architect, 1025 Arch. street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for extensive alterations and additions to the residence of Theodore Finkenauer, Esq., at 1010 North Broad street. Plans provide for an addition to the rear and general interior improvements. Bids due April 24. The following builders have been invited to bid: John R. Wiggins & Co., Jno. Gill & Co., The Chas. McCaul Co., Philip Haibach, R. M. Peterson and A. Raymond Raff.

Architect William Draper Brinckle, Equitable Building, Wilmington, Del., has prepared plans for a fine addition to the Homeopathic Hospital at Wilmington. The proposed structure will be four stories high, fireproof in construction, 80x40 feet, red brick and terra-cotta, tile roof, open plumbing, stairways and floors of concrete, elevator, windows to elevator shaft, wire glass, metal sashes, some of oak; sun parlor, 31x80 feet, bath rooms, boiler room. The first floor will have offices, dispensary; the second and third floors will be for private patients, with a number of bath rooms. The fourth floor will eventually be finished for dormitories. Cost about $45,000.

Ballinger & Perot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for new factory for S. S. Marvin, to be erected on the southwest corner of Centre and College avenue, Pittsburg, Pa. It will be six stories and basement high, 60x70 feet and will be fireproof with reinforced concrete floor, tower fire escape, and every convenience and appointment. Bids due April 26. The following are bidding: Calhoun & Miller, Andrew Richmond & Sons, Wm. Sieber & Sons, Wm. Kreusler, Golden & Crocht, Kern & Fox, of Pittsburg, Pa., Concrete Steel Construction Co., of Cleveland, O., and Roydhouse, Arey & Co. of this city.

C. M. Wells, architect, Langstroth Building, Main below Cheltenham avenue, Germantown, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a twin house, to be built at Lawndale, Philadelphia. It will be two and a half stories high, 43x30 feet, and will be built of frame and shingles with shingle roof, porches on the front and rear. The interior will be in hardwood and contain all modern improvements. Burd P. Evans, Joseph Ashley, Reynolds and Caldwell, builders, have submitted bids. He has also completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owners, Tacony File Works, William Shedinger, manager, for a one-story addition to their plant at Tacony, Philadelphia. It will be constructed of brick and slow-burning construction and will measure 20x90 feet.

Watson & Hueckel, architects, 1211 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alteration and additions to the residence of Mr. G. Rugan Neff, at Bustleton, Philadelphia. Bids due April 24. The following are bidding: Thomas McVaugh, Davies & Sons, Cornelius West and Wanner & Stinson. They also are working on plans and specifications for the handsome new tower and spire to be built on the Roman Catholic Church of St. Stephen, Rev. J. McLaughlin, pastor, at Broad and Butler streets. It will be constructed of cut stone and will have clock and bell, and be one of the handsomest structures of its kind in the city. They have also completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner, Charles B. Dougherty, for alteration to the rear of his residence at 1230 Spruce street.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior.

We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

Bunting & Shrigley, architects, have moved from 140 North Fifteenth street to 603 Chestnut street.

George Savage, architect, 401 Chestnut street, is working on plans for extensive interior alterations and remodeling of the Fairhill M. E. Church at Fifth and Clearfield streets. He will be ready for bids in about one week's time.

The properties at 202 and 204 South Tenth street, 208 to 212 South Alder, and 203 to 213 South Wanock street, lot with frontage of forty feet on Tenth street, 56 feet on Alder street, 96 feet on Warnock street, has been sold to John Thompson, for $55,000. It is stated that a new hotel will be built on this site.

Edward P. Simon, architect, 1229 Walnut street, has been commissioned by the building committee of the Chester Lodge of Elks to prepare preliminary plans for the proposed new Elk building, to be erected on the site recently purchased at Fifth and Welsh streets, Chester, Pa. Too early for details.

Franklin & Clark, architects and engineers, Crozer Building, have completed revised plans and specifications and invited estimates from local builders, for the new school house to be built at Ocean City, N. J. It will be two stories high, of frame, and have all the usual appointments. Bids due April 28.

BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE NOTES

F. E. Wallace, E. D. Eddleman, E. Clark, builders, have submitted bids for a house and stable. It will be two and a half stories, 35x41 feet, for Mrs. A. S. Knipe. The stable will be one-story and loft, 35x41 feet, and will be built at Roxborough, Philadelphia, according to the revised plans and specifications by Andrew J. Sauer, architect, 1208 Chestnut street.

Efforts are being made to organize two trust companies to be located on Ridge avenue, one at Columbia avenue and the other above 19th street. The ex-president of the Northwestern Bank in conjunction with Mr. Foulkrod, is said to be at the head of the former proposition and Mr. Freihoffer, the bread baker, it is stated, is at the head of the proposed 19th street and Ridge avenue enterprise.

The Philadelphia Ship Repair Company have taken title to 9 acres of land between Snyder and Weccace, with 206 feet on Delaware avenue, including Milfin street wharf. The corporation intends to enter into the ship repair and general business. Building will be built. The directors of the company are Messrs. F. J. McDonald, Kunzig and Palmer and George H. Burphy and E. W. McCormick.

Milton W. Young, builder, Overbrook, Pa., has started work on three dwellings, to be erected at that place. One is for Walter B. Smith, to be erected on Woodbine, east of Fifty-ninth street. The other two are for Wendell & Smith, to be built on north side of Drexel Road, west of Sixty-fourth street, that place. They will be of stone and brick, three stories high, with all modern improvements and cost $27,000.

George Bockman, builder, at Camden, N. J., has been awarded the contract to build the new parochial school at Spruce and John streets, that city, for the Roman Catholic congregation of Saints Peter and Paul. It will be two stories and basement high and measure 49x137 feet, and be built of stone (details previously noted). Plans by Thomas Stephens, architect, Masonic Temple Building, same city.

J. P. Thompson, builder, 1432 South Penn Square Building, has submitted bids for the alterations and additions to factory at Nos. 16 and 18 North Second street, for the estate of H. W. Burrough. Plans provide for a two-story addition and general interior improvements. Plans and specifications by Robeson Lea Perot and E. Perot Bissell, associated architects, Bailey Building.

James Smyth, builder, at Wilmington, Del., has been awarded the contract to build the new stable at the residence of A. Felix duPont, Esq., near Wilmington, Del. It will be two stories high, 31x25 feet, and will be built of frame and expansion metal and will contain stalls, carriage house, harness room and coachman quarters on the second floor. The plans are by Robeson Lea Perot, architect, Bailey Building, this city.

Harry R. Brockhurst, builder, 512 Norris street, has filed the lowest bid and will probably be awarded the contract for alteration and addition and the building of a new stable at the residence of Mr. John A. Carter at 122 West Upsal street, Germantown, according to the plans and specifications of Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building. It is expected that contract will be signed in a few days and work proceed at once.

Camblos & Co., builders, Pennsylvania Building, have been awarded the contract to build the house and stable at Villa Nova, Pa., for George C. Thayer, Esq. The house will be two and a half stories high, 51x22 feet. The stable two stories high, 33x32 feet, both to be constructed of frame and stone, and contain all modern conveniences. The plans and specifications by Brockie & Hastings, architects, 328 Chestnut street. Work will start at once.

F. L. Hoover & Sons, Inc., builders, 629 Chestnut street, have been awarded the contract for alterations to the National Deposit Bank, at 930 Chestnut street; also, for the new residence for Mrs. Emma C. Seeburger, to be built at the northeast corner of Edge Hill Road and Maple avenue, Bala, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, of stone and frame, with all modern improvements. The plans are by Frank Seeburger, architect, Land Title Building.

In a short while the Philadelphia and West Chester Traction Company will build and operate a trolley line from Sixty-third and Market streets through Upper Darby and on to Clifton Heights. They have purchased from the owners, the St. Charles T. A. B. Hall Association, a plot of ground at the corner of Glenwood and Baltimore avenues, Clifton Heights, upon which they will build a station, which will be its terminus.

J. S. Conuell & Son, builders, Land Title Building, have been awarded the contract for alterations to cost $10,000, at 1207 Walnut street, for Ferdinand Keller. The plans provide for demolishing the rear building putting up a one-story rear addition, 24x70 feet, putting in a new front with galvanized iron bay windows, new partitions, steam heat and general interior improvements. There will also be a fire-escape erected. The plans are by Amos W. Barnes, architect and engineer.

Keep in mind that fact that at the new glass supply house of Henry E. Sealey & Co., 230 and 232 North Twelfth street, everything in the way of the manufacturing end of the glass business is promptly and skillfully done. Grinding, beveling, cutting, as well as quick-silvering. New mirrors of any shape or size. Store fronts repaired and reglazed. In short the wants of architects, builders, painters and even picture men have been anticipated as the result of many years of experience, and in most cases the job can be done while you wait.

A. S. Reed Bros., builders, at Wilmington, Del., have been awarded the contract to build the handsome stone wall and James Dougherty's grading and landscape work at the residence of F. I. duPont, Esq., at 1520 Delaware avenue, that city. Plans and specifications by Robeson Lea Perot, architect, Bailey Building, this city. Ogelsby Paul, consulting engineer. The work will be done under his supervision. The same firm has been awarded the contract by Mr. Perot for the automobile stable at the residence of Mr. Ernest duPont, near Wilmington, Del. It will be one-story high, 19x27 feet, and will be built of frame and expansion metal with the usual appointments.

Wm. Steele & Son, builders, 1600 Arch street, have started work on the new lace mills for Jos. H. Bromley, which will be erected on the block between 21st and 22d streets, Lehigh avenue and Somerset street. There will be two main buildings, each to be three stories and basement high, and will be built of brick and slow burning construction. There will also be a large power house built and will contain 15,000 horsepower for this mill, and it will be built of brick, stone and steel and be fireproof. At the entrance to the mills at 22d and Lehigh avenue, a handsome brick, stone and terra-cotta building will be erected to be devoted to the use of offices.

Cramp & Co., builders, 1421 Filbert street, have been awarded the contract to build the new warehouse for Crane Company, at American and Master streets. It will be four stories high, 200x20x70 feet and will be built of brick and reinforced concrete with all modern appointments and will cost $100,000. The plans and specifications are by Ballinger & Perrot, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street. They also have been awarded the contract to build the dormitory building in connection with the Old Men's Home, at Thirty-ninth and Baring street. It will be three stories and basement high and be constructed of brick and steel and terra-cotta and will be fireproof. It will have all up-to-date appointments and will cost about $46,000. The plans and specifications are by G. W. and W. D. Hewitt, architects, Bullitt Building.

The plans by Architects Wyatt & Nolting call for a seven-story structure. It will be of re-inforced concrete and will contain one hundred and twenty-five rooms. The interior will be well finished, open plumbing, steam heat, electric lights, elevators and all modern conveniences. The estimated cost is $125,000.—Messrs. Isaac Hamburger & Sons, clothiers, will erect a handsome seven-story building at the northwest corner of Baltimore and Hanover streets, from plans prepared by Architects Simonson & Pietsch. It will be of granite and ornamental terra-cotta. Cost, $200,000.—Plans have been distributed for two new school buildings, one at Lakewood avenue and Oliver street, the other at Ramsay and Pulaski streets. Each will be three stories high, of granite, brick and terra-cotta, also some marble.—Mr. Henry Yewell Bready is interested in a brick plant which is to be established near Baltimore. About $40,000 will be expended in buildings and machinery. A New York architect will prepare the plans. Mr. Henry E. New, of Baltimore, is treasurer and secretary of the company.—A five-story furniture storage warehouse will be erected at Lafayette avenue and Division street, by Charles H. Kaufman, from plans prepared by Morris & Clifford.—Mrs. Nelson Perin, Charles and Chase streets, has awarded a contract to John Hiltz & Son, 3 Clay street, for the erection of a dwelling to cost $7000. It will be three stories high.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Nicholas T. Heller has prepared plans for an apartment house, to be erected by J. F. McCormick and N. G. Watts.—Mr. G. A. Harding will erect an apartment house to cost $200,000.—An apartment house will be erected by Francis E. Weller, at a cost of $300,000.—It is stated that R. Guastivono & Co., of New York City, have been awarded the contract for work at the Army War College, to cost $34,384.95.—Work has begun on an apartment house, to cost $40,000, for John E. Harrell, the president of the Capital National Bank.—A site has been bought by Lewis E. Bruninger on which to erect an apartment house to cost $200,000.—Architect William S. Plager has prepared plans for an apartment house, to be erected for Henry M. Foote, at a cost of $50,000. It will occupy a site on Maryland avenue between Second and Third streets.

A three-story apartment house will be erected on Seward street, between Fifth and Sixth streets southeast. It will contain six well finished and appointed suites, two on each floor.—Architects Wyeth & Cresson have prepared plans for a handsome dwelling, to be erected on the east side of Connecticut avenue, between Q and R streets, for Justice McKenna. The proposed dwelling will have fine interior finish and will be provided with all modern conveniences.

The 20th Century Hot Air Radiator System of Heating

MORE efficient and more reliable than hot water or steam, with the cost of installation one-half. The radiators are made of sheet steel, and can be set in any desired part of the room without cutting carpets or holes in floors. They can be decorated to conform to the room decorations; no iron pipes and valves coming up through the floors to leak and cause annoyance and destruction. The hot air from the furnace, located in the cellar, passes through the radiators in each room, giving an even and delightful temperature, without dust, smell or odor of coal gas, or any of the other numerous bad features of registers, hot water or steam. The circulation of the hot air through the 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR is perfect and constant, is always under absolute control and the heat can be regulated in each room. Any make of furnace, new or old, if efficient, can be used. The cost of installation is much less, and the economy of fuel much greater than in the best of hot water or steam heating systems, and the results far superior. We are now prepared to install complete THE 20th CENTURY HOT AIR RADIATOR SYSTEM in new or old houses under our guarantee as to its efficiency. Advise location and size of property, when estimates on the cost of installation will be furnished without charge.

Descriptive booklet and photographs mailed to your address for the asking.

ARCHITECTS' NOTES.

T. Frank Miller, architect, 1126 Walnut street, has completed plans for a new residence, to be erected at the northeast corner of Twelfth and Sixty-fifth avenue, Oak Lane. It will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone and contain twelve rooms and bath with all modern improvements. It will be heated by hot air.

The annual meeting of the T-Square Club will be held on May 3, at 1204 Lyndale Alley, (previously noted in our issue of April 20). Herman E. Kleinfelder and Bart Tourison will be candidates for election. At the regular meeting held Friday, April 5, the evening was devoted to the discussion of the purchase of a new home for the club and the following active members were elected: Albert H. Savery, Addison H. Savery, Henry N. Smith.

Clyde S. Adams, architect, Drury Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for a twin residence, for William Idler, to be built at Oak Lane, Philadelphia. It will be two and a half stories high, 38x54 feet and be built of stone and half timber (details previously noted). The following are bidding: T. Frank Brown, J. H. and T. W. Dagney, John Davies & Son, D. A. McClelland, A. H. Westcoat and Burd P. Evans. Bids due May 6.

Some time ago the Pennsylvania Industrial School (colored), at Haverford, Pa., purchased a small farm of thirty-five acres, near Paoli, Pa., and it is the purpose of the managers of the school to establish there a manual training school on lines similar to those pursued by Booker T. Washington at Tuskegee. Steps have been taken to raise the necessary money and in a short time plans will be prepared and work on the buildings started.

Adin B. Lacey, architect, 1012 Walnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for alterations and additions to the residence of Thomas Fisher, on Highland avenue, Merion, Pa. Plans provide for a rear addition and general interior improvements. Bids due in contractor's office May 4. The following builders are bidding: W. R. Dougherty, Frank E. Wallace, Edward Gilbert & Co., and Charles Gilpin.

Heacock & Hokanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street, have completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for two houses, to be built at Roxborough, Philadelphia, for Arthur and George Littlewood. They will be two and a half stories high and will be built of stone and frame with slate roofs, and contain all modern improvements. Bids due May 5. The following are bidding: W. H. Eddleman, F. B.

Davis, F. E. Wallace, J. W. Fritzinger and J. Sims Wilson.

Charles J. Brooke, architect, 14 South Broad street, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to the owner (who is taking bids), Ralph N. Kellum, Esq., for a new house to be built at Haddonfield, N. J. It will be two and a half stories high, 30x42 feet, and be built of brick and frame and contain all modern improvements. The following are bidding: Wm. S. Capern, Haddonfield, N. J.; Mr. Green, Collingswood, N. J., and J. B. Thompson, of this city.

Roland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and will invite bids soon for the alterations to the property at 5224 Vine street, for Robert J. Lynch. Plans provide for alterations to first floor for saloon purposes, with plate glass windows, mosaic floor, wired for electricity, etc. Also, plans for new front of brick, copper cornices, plate and leaded glass windows at the saloon 1504 Market street, for Dowling & Kiffin. Owner will invite bids in a few days.

Lawrence V. Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, has completed plans and specifications for two pairs of houses, to be built at Merion, Pa. They will be two story and attic high and be built of stone, frame and shingle with shingle roof and will have porches on the front and side. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will contain all modern improvements. Bids due May 6. The following builders are invited to bid: Frank Mahan, P. J. McDewitt, J. D. Lengel, M. W. Young and McClintock and Weaver.

Carl P. Berger, architect, South Penn Square Building, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the new St. Luke's M. P. Church, to be built at 1329 Erie avenue. It will be one-story and basement high, and be built of stone (details previously noted). The following are bidding: John W. Emery, Burd P. Evans, A. Raymond Raff, Thomas Seeds, Jr., B. Ketcham & Sons, Harry Brocklehurst, Henry P. Schneider, Samuel Hartung, Fred A. Havens & Co. Bids due May 14th at 10 A. M. The following items are reserved: Steam heating, plumbing and wiring. He is now taking estimates on same.

Watson & Huckel, architects, 1211 Walnut street, have completed plans and specifications and will invite estimates in about one week's time for the new Catholic Orphan Asylum, to be erected at Sylvan Heights, near Harrisburg, for Rt. Rev. J. W. Shanahan. It will be three stories high, will be built of brick, stone and terra-cotta and will be semi-fire-proof. It will contain a chapel, dormitory, etc. Adjoining this a new laundry building will also be erected, to be two stories high.—They also completed plans and sent same to the building committee, who will take bids for the interior remodeling of the Central M. E. Church at Bridgeton, N. J.

Henry L. Reinhold, Jr., architect, 1004 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications and invited estimates for the new residence for J. W. R. Doyle, to be built at Ardmore, Pa. It will be two and a half stories high, of stone and frame and contain all modern improvements. Bids due May 8th. The following are bidding: H. Marion Zane, Edward Pay, Metzger & Wells, P. J. Hurley, of this city; John Worrell, of Rosemont, Pa.; Joseph Dyson and L. A. Hermer, of Ardmore, Pa.

Roland W. Boyle, architect, 1626 Chestnut street, has completed plans and specifications for the interior finishing of the parochial school for the Church of the Ascension, Westmoreland and G streets. Rev. Denis J. Broughal is pastor. Plans provide for plastering, plumbing, mill work, steam heating combination fixtures, etc.—He also has plans in preparation for a new boiler house, one story; smoke house, two-story, and barber shop, two-story, to be built on the grounds of the Little Sisters of the Poor, Church street, Germantown. He is also at work on plans for a carpenter shop for the same institution. Will be ready for bids in a short while.

Percy H. Brundage, a real estate operator of New York, acting for a syndicate of New York and Philadelphia capitalists, purchased the famous Lippincott mansion and property at the northeast corner of Broad and Walnut streets, for $2,625,000. The agreement of sale was executed in the office of the Pennsylvania Company for Insurance of Lives and Granting Annuities. The purchasers include four or five very rich New Yorkers, and Felix Isman and Duane, Morris, Hecksher & Roberts as a firm of this city. It is reported that as soon as possible a twenty-five story office building covering the entire lot will be built and it will be one of the largest office buildings in the United States. Plans for this building have been completed by Clarence C. Zantinger, architect, 257 South Fourth street and are now in the hands of the owners for their approval. These plans provide for a bank on part of the first floor, for offices in the upper stories and for an up-to-date restaurant in the top story, and roof garden. There are also alternate plans which provide for the construction of a building of a temporary character on part of the lot with a row of stores on Broad and Walnut streets and probably a bank and a theatre on Broad and Sansom streets corners. Too early for details.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster county, City Council has passed an ordinance to convert the West End reservoir grounds into a park to be known as Buchanan Park.

—At West Chester, Chester county, Mr. Charles A. Walker will erect a dwelling at Union and New streets.—Dr. Joseph Brighurst will erect two frame dwellings in the south side of Rosedale avenue.

—At Johnstown, Cambria county, Mr. Jos. Morgan will erect a frame dwelling, to cost $7,000. It will have interior finished and will be supplied with the usual modern conveniences. The plans have been prepared by Architects W. H. Smith & Bro., of Johnstown.

—At Lebanon, Lebanon county, the Reinoehl Lumber Company has the contracts for a dwelling at Pleasant Hill, for C. G. Fauber; for three dwellings on Weidman street, for Isaac Allwein, and for a cement block dwelling on Lehman street for John Himmelberger.

—At Ford City, Armstrong county, bids will be received until May 1, for the erection of an engine house, a pump pit and filtering well; also, for laying about 2,000 feet of cast iron water pipe. The plans have been prepared by the McNulty Engineering Co., 503 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

—At Munhall, Allegheny county, Mr. Charles Barton will erect a frame dwelling, from plans prepared by Architect Arthur Vernon, of Homestead, Pa.—Mr. Oscar Johnson, Munhall, will erect a dwelling, from plans by the same architect.—The same architect has prepared plans for three frame dwellings, to be erected at Homestead, for Mr. Myers McConnor, of Homestead.
